Traco closes 'temporarily'! reopening time in limbo?

by GLORIA DAVIS

After the state's attorney's office filed a petition for a temporary injunction to stop Traco, Inc. from operating in the Antioch Village limits until certain informational requirements have been fulfilled, Traco agreed last week to close until those requirements were met.

According to Asst. States' Atty. Larry Clark, Traco is being asked to furnish information on any toxic or hazardous substances used in their operation to the Ill. Disaster Management Agency and local emergency services.

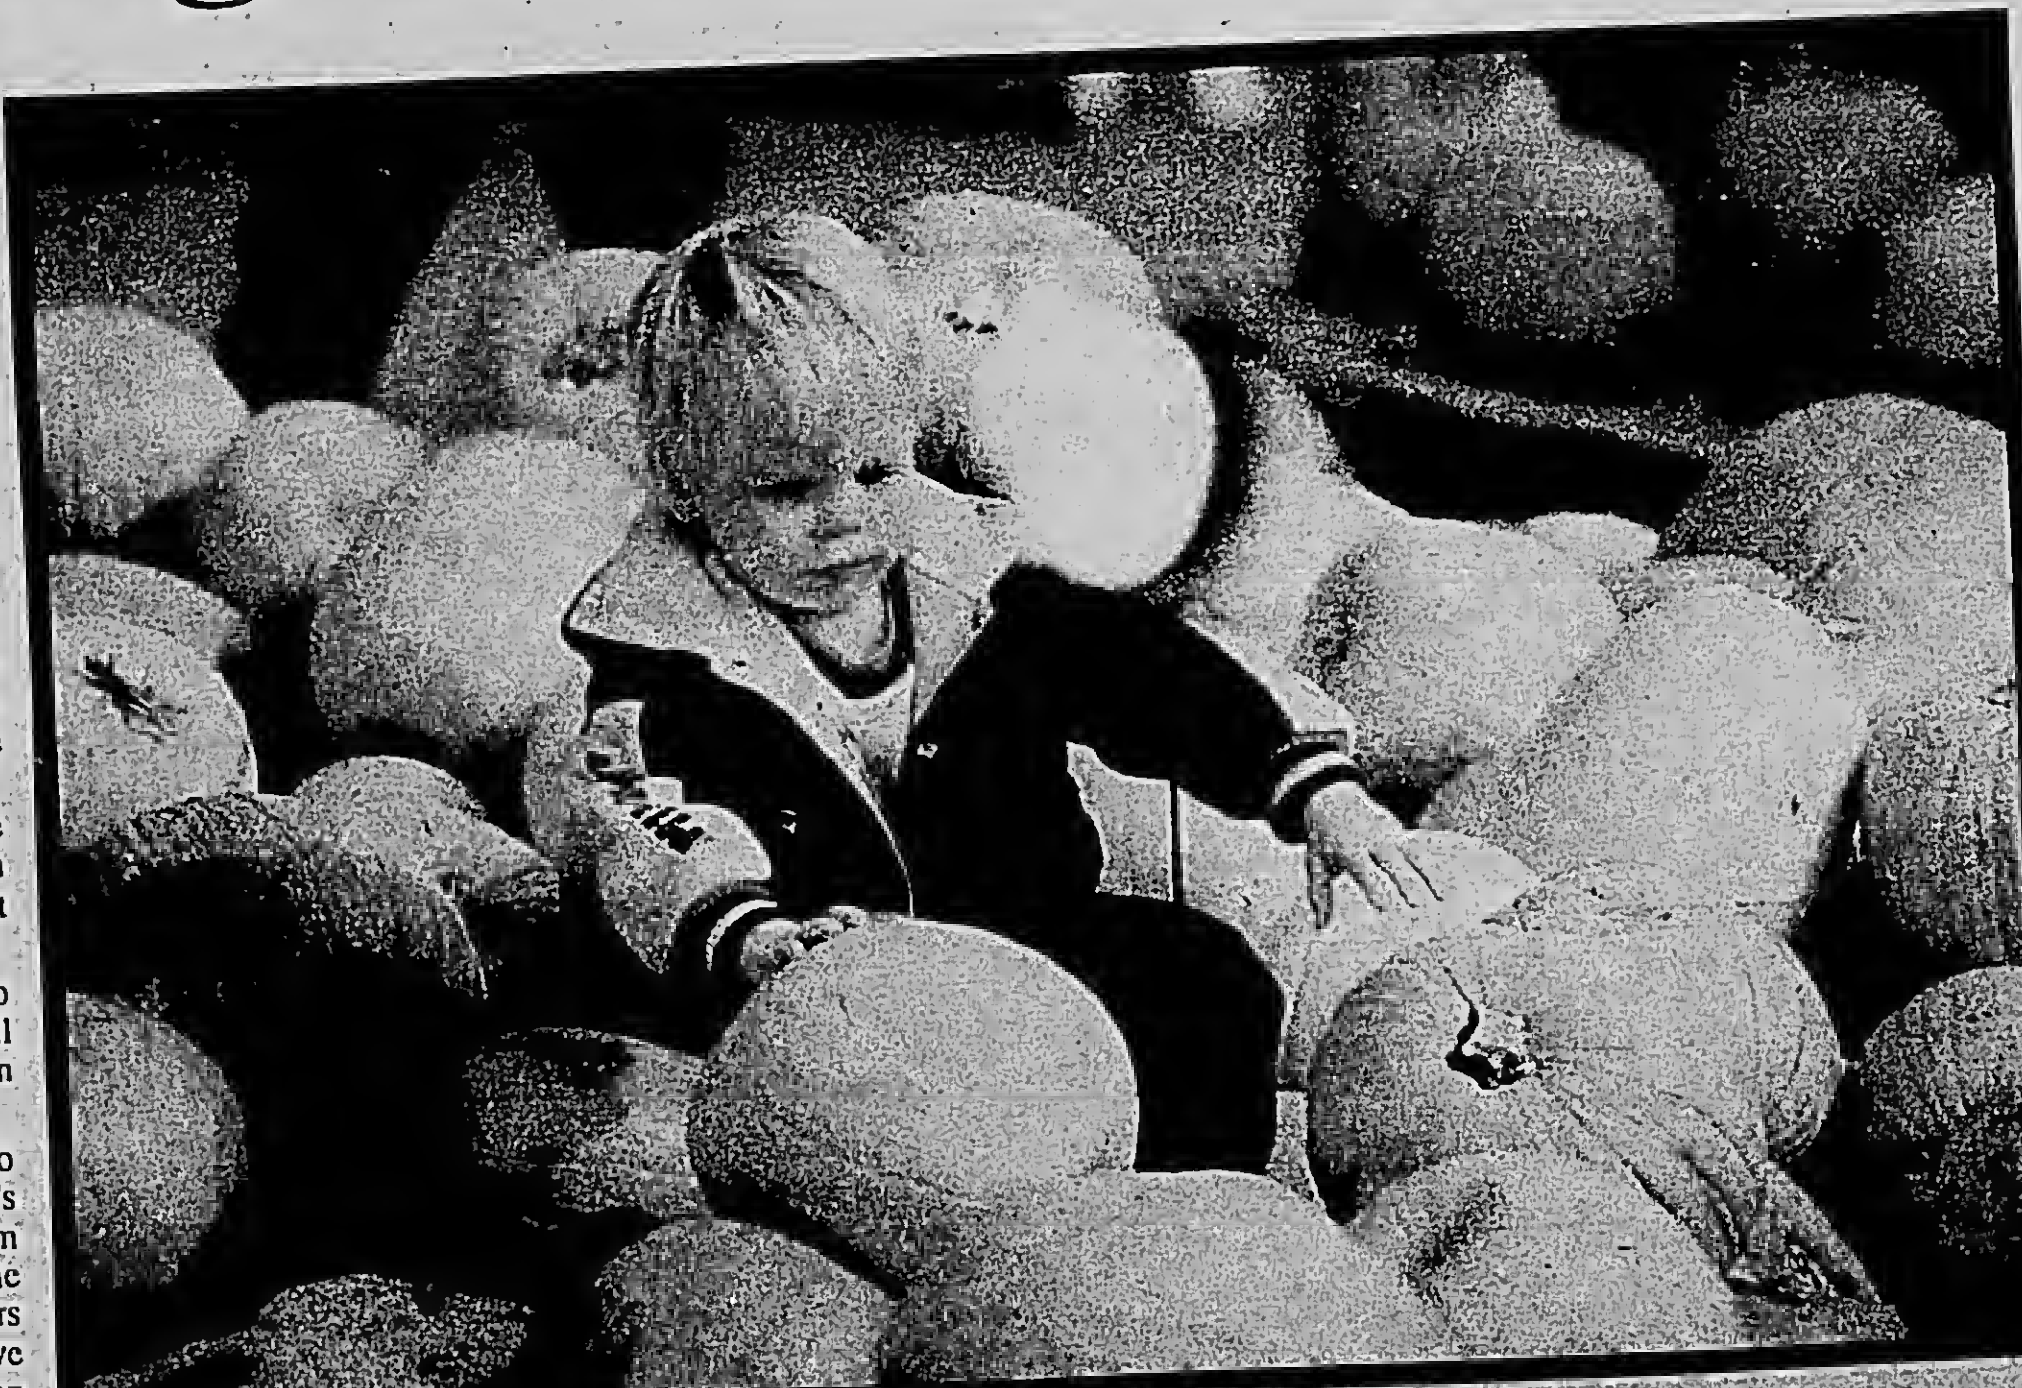

Traco is also required to furnish the Antioch Fire Dept. with information concerning the plant's layout and the positioning of their employees.

Traco has just moved to Rte. 83, at the north end of the village after its plant in North Chicago exploded and burned last summer, killing three employees.

According to Clark, Traco representatives inform him that they will meet the temporary information requirements before the week is out.

As to the permanent injunction also being sought by the state's attorney's office, in an effort to stop Traco from operating in Antioch altogether if the company will be releasing noxious odors and toxic chemicals, Clark says the move for the permanent injunction is based on public nuisance laws and the requirements of these laws will not be met so easily.

He added that more than a month of intensive investigation of the company, its production plans and employees, present and former, is expected to take place.

Big pumpkins attract little shoppers

A youngster's dilemma--which pumpkin to pick for a Jack-O-Lantern? Summer drought reduced locally grown pumpkins, but supplies are ample due to imports, some from as far away as New York farms. Roadside stands are most popular spots for selecting traditional Halloween pumpkins.

Bus' close call reaps Dist. 34-Soo confab

by GLORIA DAVIS

An incident involving an Antioch Grade School bus and a Soo line train, that occurred last week, has the school district meeting with engineers from the Soo Line.

According to Dist. 34 Admin. Don Skidmore, what might have been a serious incident happened at Depot St. and the train tracks.

"The visibility at that crossing is extremely poor," said Skidmore, explaining that two dead railroad spurs stop vehicles from getting close enough to have a clear view down the tracks. At present street repair is also in progress.

Skidmore added that equipment buildings, existing brush, and the fact that the train tracks dogleg to the right increase the area's poor visibility.

Last week, a bus bringing children home after school, approached the crossing and the warning lights were on.

According to Skidmore, the bus driver said that she stopped the bus, got out, listened and looked down the tracks and saw two cars crossing the tracks from the opposite direction. Feeling that the road construction must be causing the lights to flash and that the crossing was safe, she drove the bus across the tracks.

According to Sgt. Charles Watkins of the Antioch Police Dept., who had called the railroad after Skidmore reported the crossing's poor visibility, a representative of the Soo line said that the engineer of the train in question had reported that the bus stopped and "then drove right in front of the train. They don't come much closer than that," he added.

Skidmore claims that a talk with the driver revealed that there was about 50-60 yards between the bus and the train at the time the bus crossed the tracks and, although the bus and train were not as close together as talk has it, the area "has a potential for an accident to happen if the visibility problem is not solved immediately.

Skidmore said that the biggest mistake made was for the driver to proceed when the warning lights were still flashing. According to bus driving rules, the driver should not have crossed the tracks, even if no train was in sight until an authority (police, etc.) figure gave permission to cross.

Skidmore is set to meet with railroad officials on the matter also in light of the advent of the Pine Hills Subdivision which will bring much heavier school bus traffic crossing at that intersection.

PADS trainings

ANTIOCH—Lake County PADS Program (Public Action to Deliver Shelter) began its second season of providing shelter, food and hospitality to those in need of these essentials, running to April 30. PADS is an ecumenical effort on the part of churches, synagogues and service organizations to provide shelter sites, volunteer staff, food and referral information to the homeless who wish to receive these services. There are 11 shelter sites located throughout Lake County. Over 500 volunteers are needed to staff these sites. Volunteers supervise and visit with guests, prepare meals, clean up sites and help with laundry. A PADS volunteer training is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 16 from 6 to 8 p.m. at St. Stephen Lutheran Church located at 1155 Hillside in Antioch.

Slate Health Fair

ROUND LAKE—Staying healthy is everyone's goal! At the Round Lake Senior Center, wanting to help the seniors meet this goal, a Be Kind To Your Body! Health Fair on Thursday, Oct. 20, from 1:30 to 5 p.m. will be held. The center is located in the upper level of the Round Lake Park Dist. Community Center, 814 Hart Rd. Free screenings will be available from head to toe, including cataract and glaucoma, dental, hearing, blood pressure and feet. Representatives will also be on hand to explain the Low Vision Center and the Senior Passport Program. All are invited. Any senior wishing to make a reservation for lunch that day, at noon, should call the center at (312) 546-0056 by Tuesday, Oct. 18.

Plan health talk

GRAYSLAKE—Is your cholesterol level desirable, borderline high or high? What can be done to help bring the level down? To help you understand cholesterol better, the Cooperative Extension Service of Lake County will present a free program featuring Dr. Sheila Ashbrook, Univ. of Illinois food and nutrition specialist. "Understanding Cholesterol" will be held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, Oct.

27, at the Extension Service office in Grayslake. The public is welcome to attend. To register in advance, call (312) 223-8627.

Hunger walk

LAKE FOREST—On Oct. 16 people from all over Lake County will be participating in a 10 kilometer walk for world hunger. The walk will commence at 1 p.m. in front of the Church of the Holy Spirit at 400 Westminster in Lake Forest. People interested in participating should seek sponsors that will pay them for the distance they walk. All monies will go to feed the hungry in Lake County and all over the world. To obtain more information and your sponsor kit, contact participating churches or Tom and Sue Ebert at (312) 295-2048, Harvey Auman at (312) 295-5680, or Laura Bilanovich at (312) 949-1481.

New building

WAUKEGAN—On Saturday, Oct. 19, Shimer College will officially open its newly renovated facilities. At 10 a.m. Mayor Robert Sabonjian will unveil the new sign and participate in the dedication of the new buildings. An open house will follow until 2 p.m. There will be tours of the campus and Great Book discussions scheduled throughout the day, with all interested individuals welcome.

Close call

ANTIOCH—A reported close call between a Dist. 34 school bus and a Soo Line train last week has caused the school district to call a meeting with the railroad's engineers concerning the particular crossing. According to Supt. Don Skidmore, brush, construction and equipment impairs visibility at the crossing. Skidmore said that the crossing lights were on but the bus driver could not hear or see a train. The driver broke rules by not waiting for an authority to OK crossing the tracks. Skidmore says that the call was not as close as reported with the train never closer to the bus than 60 yards away.

Big park plans

LAKE ZURICH—Work totaling more than $2 million needs to be done to village parks between now and 1990. Price tags are $1,613,000 for baseball field improvements at five locations, $41,000 for new soccer field and $301,000 for other park improvements, including a concession building at Pleasant Acres Park and new entrance on Rte. 12. Much of the funding for this ambitious program will come from developer contributions.

Oppose Rte. 53

HAWTHORN WOODS—More than 300 angry residents with petitions signed by 700 persons stormed the village board meeting this week demanding repeal of a previously-approved resolution in support of extending Rte. 53 northward to Rte. 120 in Grayslake. The Sept. 13 resolution said the village recognized a need for the extension.

Groundbreaking set

VERNON HILLS—Groundbreaking for the first phase of constructing a 515-acre business park by Prentiss Properties Limited, Inc. was conducted with the planting of a tree, a fitting touch since plans call for extensive landscaping boasting 2,300 trees either retained or planted.

New political party

LINDENHURST—Citizens Action Party of Lindenhurst has been formed to mount a challenge in the spring election. Chairman Robert Warrander II said the No. 1 issue is taxes, particularly those for the village, new park district and schools. Positions of three trustees and the village clerk will be elected next spring.

Ask senior complex

FOX RV. VALLEY GRDNS.—Plans for 365 senior citizen apartments to be built over five years at a cost of $30-million were presented to the village board this week by Jaeger Construction Co. of Arlington Heights. The developer wants to annex the 46-acre site to the village with access only via a 33-foot road. Residents along the route of the connecting street oppose the project because of anticipated traffic construction. When the project was proposed in September 1987 it was opposed by residents in the adjoining unincorporated area between here and Lake Barrington.

Apartments are OK

LAKE VILLA—Full occupancy permits have been issued for the 36 luxury Water's Edge apartments on the southeast shore of Deep Lake despite a demand by the village board one week earlier of a $10,000 deposit to assure completion of landscaping and a building inspector's "punch list." Until last week units in two buildings had only temporary occupancy permits and a third building had no occupancy permits although residents were reported to be moving in Oct. 1. At a special committee meeting Oct. 5 it was decided over the objections of some trustees to issue permanent permits for all buildings after learning almost all work had been completed.

No new trustee

LAKE VILLA—Trustee Pete Dubin, who resigned in August, will not be replaced prior to next spring's election. Due to the political climate on the board, it was decided not to attempt naming a replacement and further dividing the board. Dubin resigned after eight years because he and his family moved to Antioch.

Scouts serve spaghetti on Sunday

Everyone should mark their calendars for Antioch's Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 28th annual "All-You-Can-Eat" spaghetti dinner on Sunday, Oct. 16.

The dinner will be held at the Moose Hall located at 884 N. Main St. in Antioch. The dinner includes spaghetti with meatballs, coleslaw, bread and butter, cake and beverage.

The Scouts will be serving between noon and 7 p.m., but the best time is between noon and 4:30 p.m.

Donation is $3.50 per person, with children under six eating free. Tickets may be purchased at the door or in advance from any Scout. Carry-out service will be provided, but patrons are asked to bring their own containers.

In addition to enjoying a delicious dinner, patrons will be eligible to win door prizes with their dinner ticket stubs. There will be a main drawing at 7 p.m.

Patrons need not be present to win any of the many prizes which have been donated by area merchants.

Proceeds from the dinner are used to finance many of the troop's activities, including campouts and field trips. Spaghetti dinner Chairman Harold Clark will be assisted by Chief Chef Bernie Dost and House Chairman Bill Goetzelman. Troop 92 is sponsored by Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 525.

Gobble splits dinner scene

Gobble the Turkey seems to be making getaway from committee for St. Ignatius' annual turkey dinner-dance. This year efforts to make event bigger and better than ever are being made with hopes high to draw 1,000 to dine on turkey.

Women finish golf season, honor best golfers

Tuesday, Sept. 27, was the last day of official golf for the State Bank of Antioch Women's Golf League. The day of golf and the awards banquet was held at Midlane Country Club.

Sand traps and water added to the golfers' "fun" or "frustration", whichever the case may have been. Marge Solar and Mary Polley were chairpersons of the outing. Following dinner, Solar introduced Mr. L. Woods of the State Bank of Antioch, who announced the following awards:

In "A" - first, Jan Kennedy; second, Trudy Anderson. In "B" - first, Joan Lichter; second, Kay Costoff. In "C" - first, Grace Collette; and second - June Hols and Shirley Wilton. In "D" - first, Florence Pedersen; and second, Fran Priory. In "E" - first, Jan Hagstrom; and second, Dolores Abderholden.

The Most Improved Player is Fran Priory.

Edna Barr, Bev Sorenson, Dolly Clark, Jeanette Dahl, Irene Teresi, Bunny Thelen, June Hols and Betty Mentone all won birdie awards.

Awards were also given for low net to: Bev Redkers, Costoff, Wilton, Priory and Gladys Prihoda.

High net prizes went to: Elfriede Hansen, Joan Lichter, Lorraine Toton, Pedersen, Phyllis Bucar and Edna Barr.

Members of the golf league wish to thank the State Bank of Antioch for their sponsorship, support and very generous donations toward prizes and awards.

They also thank Nancy Zikus for her leadership, and all the officers who served during the year.

The new officers for 1989 are: President, Shirley Wilton; Vice-President, Joan Lichter; Sec. Fran Priory; Treas. Mary Polley; rules, Lorraine Hitchon and Lorraine Blackman and publicity, Alvera Morgan.

Teen rift leads to theft, car drowning

Allan Piispanen, 17, Lindenhurst was arrested by the Antioch Police Dept. last week and charged with stealing a 1984 Mercury from the Lyons and Ryan car lot on Saturday, Oct. 1.

According to Antioch Police Chief Charles Miller, a tip from Crime Stoppers led them to Piispanen and when he was approached at his home he confessed that he had taken the car.

Piispanen told police that he was being driven home by his girlfriend who lives in Trevor early Saturday. They had a fight and he left her car and started walking.

He found a set of car keys labeled with the make and year of the car they belonged to laying on the ground in the car dealer's lot.

After locating the car, he drove it to Lindenhurst and then into Hastings Lake.

The Lindenhurst Police had Herb's Auto retrieve the car from the lake. Damage to the automobile is estimated at $1,500.

Piispanen was charged with felony theft over $300, criminal trespassing to a motor vehicle and criminal damage to property. He was released on a $25,000 bond.

The accused faces up to four years in the state penitentiary on the theft charge alone but he is not expected to get that stiff of a sentence if convicted because he has no prior criminal record.

Church bazaar set

Jane Pedersen and Lucile Eberman are chairpersons of the Early Choppers Bazaar, to be held at the United Methodist Church of Antioch, 848 N. Main St. on Saturday, Oct. 15 from 9 to 3.

Louella Anderson and her committee will serve a mouth watering luncheon of beef ragout, salad, rolls, and cake. Cost of the lunch is $4 for adults and $2 for children under six.

Arrow winners

St. Ignatius readies super turkey dinner

by CAROLYN HAMMOND
(312)395-6081

Would you believe that October is half over? It really hasn't sunk in yet that this means winter and all that bad stuff will soon follow--you know ... ice, snow and cold weather. One can even take a measure of pleasure in October's sometimes chilly days realizing that Old Man Winter is not here yet.

bought as a class project at a local pet shop. Again, here we have a great example of the ways of combining science teaching and basic economics teaching as the class went through all the steps of planning, purchasing and setting up a class aquarium.

Fall also means the Antioch High School Marching Sequoit Band takes its show on the road. Not only does the group secutive week, burned an Antioch team as they defeated the Raiders 13-0.

Playing the best game they had played all season, the Raiders held the score to 7-0 until the final 30 seconds of the game. Outstanding blocking play by Jamie English and Chris Bakk made holes for outstanding running back Bruce Davis to tally 52 yards in nine carries. The defense was held up by linebacker Jim Stevens and cornerback Kenny Grasser.

Notes & News

What is here in Antioch are some busy folks--

The parishioners of Antioch's St. Ignatius Episcopal Church are busy preparing for their 35th annual Turkey Dinner and Dance to be held Saturday, Oct. 22, at the Antioch VFW Hall, 75 North Ave.

Dinner will be served from 4 to 9 p.m., with carry-outs available. Dancing will be from 7 p.m. until midnight. Tickets are $6 for adults, and $3.50 for children under 12. Advance tickets are available at both local Antioch banks. Don't wait until Thanksgiving to enjoy your turkey--come out and enjoy the good home cooking!

In Antioch Grade School news--the entire third grade has registered to vote in a mock presidential election. (Are you registered to vote?) The students had to fill out a form like us big folks. This once-every-four-year opportunity to demonstrate what our country's all about always generates a lot of enthusiasm at the school. Sure would be nice if those of us eligible to vote would recognize the privilege we have and get as fired up. Results from the AGS polls will be published here as soon as available. What a neat way to teach civics in a way most youngsters won't forget.

In other AGS news--Claudia Hovey's second-grade class is getting in the swim, literally (sort of). They are busy mothering a bunch of baby guppies recently born to the parents perform at ACHS home games, but it also travels this year to five marching band competitions and goes head-to-head with many fine musical organization. Next week, on Sunday, Oct. 16, the band will participate in a parade and competition in Franklin Park, near Chicago. It's always a great show. Good playing and good luck, Sequoits!

Speaking of parades and playing, when you say October that means ACHS Homecoming. The Homecoming, 1988, activities are almost here, with the Mr. ACHS Male Beauty contest starting at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 19, in the north gym. If you want to attend a hilarious event, this is it! This annual Antioch rite of fall is guaranteed to keep you laughing and will probably prejudice you forever toward regular beauty contests. It's a good time, anyway--don't miss it is your Wednesday night's free!

In Viking football action, there were a lot of fun games reported but no winners.

The Bears welcomed Winnetka to its home turf, but at game's end after a tough defensive struggle, the score stood at 0-0. Outstanding in the game for the Bears were: noseguard Chad Molczan, defensive ends Bobby Scroggin and Greg Brey, linebackers Tim Brey and Jason Fugett, and safety Bobby Elquist who had his first solo tackle.

The Flames of Lake Zurich, for the second con-

It was McHenry, 13, and Antioch Eagles, 12, at McHenry as the hosts triumphed in this see-saw game. Taking to the air, the Eagles scored all their points on passing plays to tailback Jay Sanders but couldn't punch the PAT through.

In Viking Lightweight action in a closer and better game than the score indicates, Fox Lake beat Antioch, 18-6. Outstanding in a good defensive line effort were: tackle Kevin Denzel, guard Marty Kuhn, and guard D.C. Malson, helped out by safety Pat McGinn.

Offensively, tailback Ricky Johnson took the ball to the three-inch line, where a short plunge by tailback McGinn gained Antioch its six points. The team plays better every week, and after losing some real heartbreakers, is looking forward to the playoffs coming up soon.

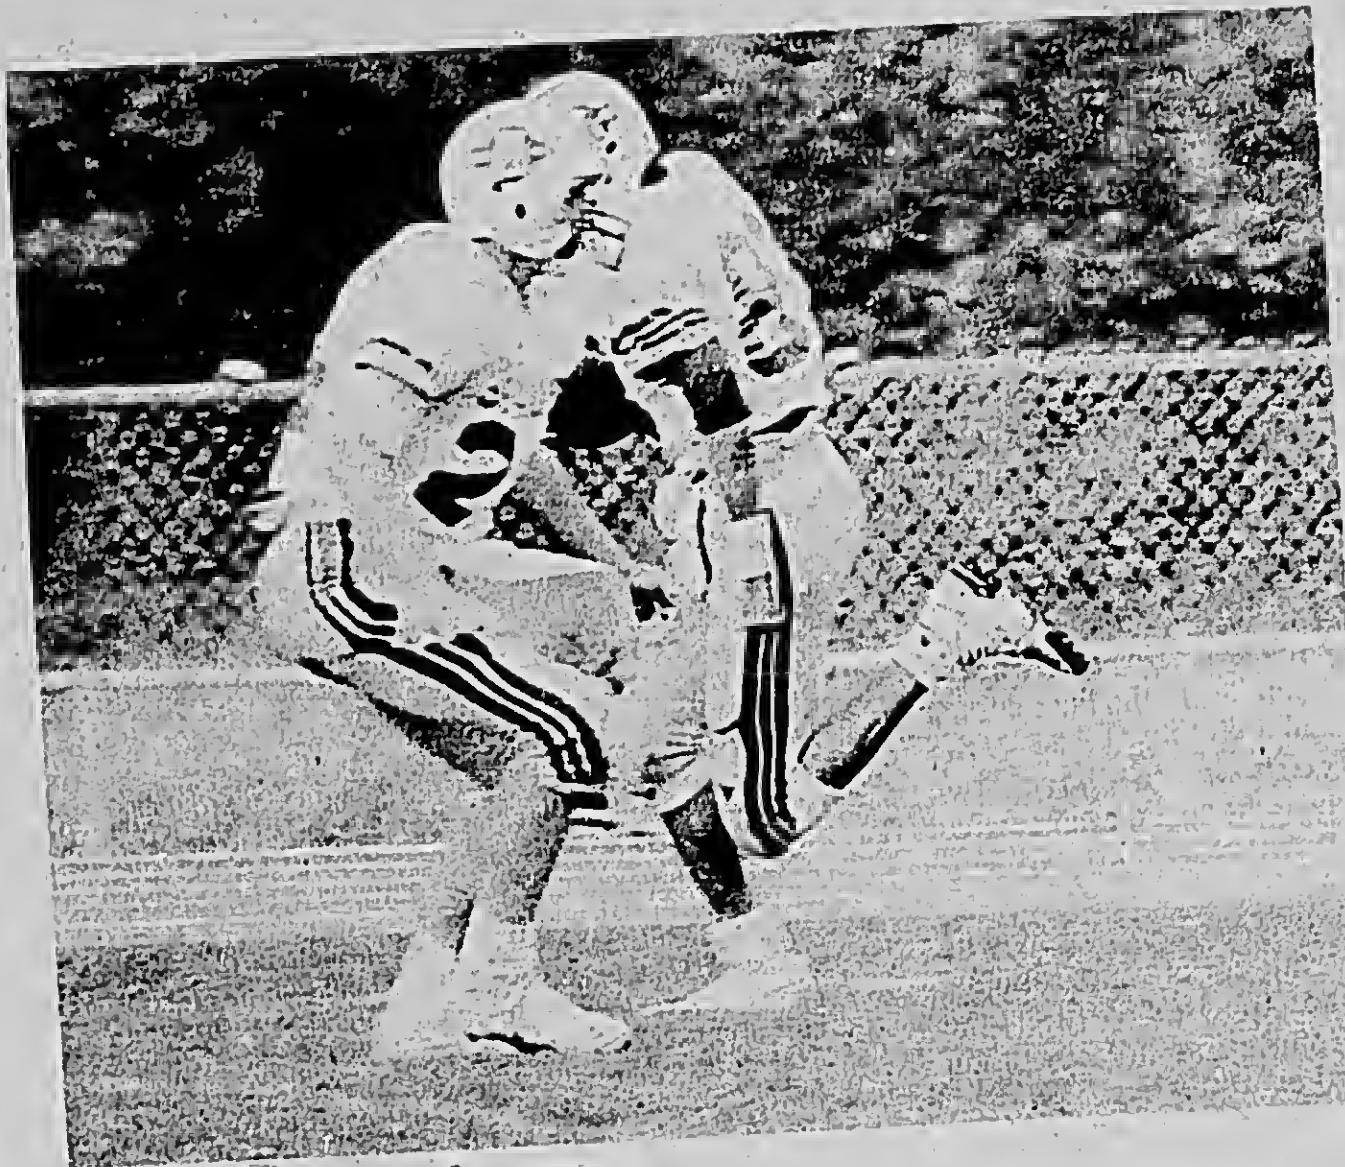

In Heavyweight play: Fox Lake bested Antioch, 30-9, in spite of a super effort by tailback Gary Oilschlager, offensive tackle David Remter, and wide receiver Mike Milazzo. Antioch scored on a pass from quarterback Jason Tate to Milazzo.

Next week the lights and heavies travel to Winnetka. In Featherweight action, it'll be: Seahawks vs. McHenry 2 at home at 1 p.m.; Raiders vs. McHenry 1 at home, 2:30 p.m., and Eagles at Mundelein, 1 p.m.

Richmond aim to take Hornets, clinch playoffs

The rest of the Big Eight Conference measure themselves by how they fare against Harvard and Richmond-Burton.

This year is no exception, and the Big Two of the BEC will clash at Greely Field in Richmond Oct. 15. The game will be Homecoming for the Rockets, and could be on the scale of Michigan-Ohio State when those two colleges dominated the Big Ten.

"It will be an emotional game," Richmond-Burton Head Coach J. Randy Hofman said.

Both teams are 6-0, 4-0 and are coming off a week when they demolished two of the weaker sisters in the BEC by a combined 81-0.

Richmond, the state's top-ranked Class 2A team, did nothing to hurt its reputation with the pollsters with a 51-0 whipping of Huntley last Friday.

"I was happy to see that no one got hurt," Hofman said.

The blowout allowed Hofman to play many players who don't normally see playoff action.

Chris Steadman continued to rack up the yardage as the all-state candidate finished with an even 100 yards rushing on 10 carries and exploded for four touchdowns against the Redskins.

The Rockets even answered one of Hofman's questions in the game as Mike Harris booted seven-for-seven extra point tries. When quarterback Roger Hauri injured a shoulder early in the year, the Rockets were left without a dependable PAT kicker until the Huntley contest.

Steadman scored all the points the Rockets would need when he tallied from four-yards out. Harris PAT made it 7-0 and the game was over.

After Chad Komar threw a 17-yard TD to Scott Deliskiewicz, Steadman showed he was a threat on the R-B defense, picking off a Huntley pass and returning it 47 yards for a score. Steadman scored from one yard out in the second quarter and from 12 yards out in the second half.

Harvard took the Rockets to double overtime last year in Harvard; Hofman said he hopes his troops will not be caught up in that age-old problem of Homecoming hoopla.

And if they aren't, they could be the first area team to clinch a playoff berth.

Warren-Antioch will renew their old rivalry

It doesn't matter if it is the Northwest Suburban Conference, North Suburban Conference or a pickup summer game. When the Antioch Sequoia and Warren Blue Devils battle it out on a football field, you know there is no mutual admiration society present.

"You can't look at records here," Antioch Coach Del Pechauer said.

Pechauer is in his first year as Antioch head mentor, but he has spent enough time as an assistant in the NSC to know that Warren-Antioch games are special. And just because both teams are coming into the Oct. 15 contest at Warren with 2-4 marks, fans should not expect anything less than they've come to expect in the past few years.

Warren is coming off a 27-7 loss to the league leaders at Zion-Benton while Antioch finally ended four weeks of frustration with a 14-9 win at Mundelein.

Sophomore quarterback Rick Beattie is coming off a two-touchdown pass day against the Mustangs and is improving according to both coaches.

"Rick is gaining more confidence every game," Pechauer said.

"Beattie is a capable quarterback but the experience factor hurts him. He was playing behind a junior who started last year," Warren Coach Reggie Hughes said.

After a scoreless first half, Beattie connected with Brad Nauman from 29 yards out in the second quarter and 55 yards out in the fourth quarter.

"He was forced out of the pocket and was scrambling and just threw the ball. Brad jumped and caught the ball," Pechauer said of the first touchdown pass.

Beattie finished the day with seven-for-15 for 125 yards in passing.

Although the Blue Devils lost by a big margin last week, Pechauer knows the team's potential.

"They have a real good defense," Pechauer said of the Devils.

It will be Homecoming at Warren and that adds another distraction for the players.

"Our tradition in Homecoming games is not good. Homecoming is good for the alumni and student body but sometimes the last thing on the players' minds," Hughes said.

The Blue Devils were in the contest against Zion-Benton for three quarters before Donald Farmer and the first-place team became too much.

"I thought we played good defense for three quarters," Hughes said.

The defense though, could not stop Farmer, who racked up 245 yards and scored four touchdowns.

Zion opened the scoring when Farmer caught a six-yard pass from Gary Scott, the quarterback who returned for the Zee-Becs just at the wrong time for Warren.

Warren then drove to the three yard-line of Zion before a fumble ended that effort.

Farmer then eluded Warren defenders who thought he was out-of-bounds.

"We looked at the film and it showed we missed him twice," Hughes remembered.

Warren narrowed the gap to 13-7 in the third quarter when quarterback Paul Kucharski dove in from two yards out after Warren's Bob Brock blocked a Zion punt.

The Zee-Becs then responded with a 67-yard drive with Farmer plunging home from one yard out.

With 7:19 left, Farmer dashed to the right sideline for a 46-yard score.

"They have the fastest team in the league, including North Chicago. We just had poor execution," Hughes said.

Zion's defense held Kucharski to a bad day, completing just four of 16 passes for 43 yards.

High speed chase leads to DUI charge

Shawn Bates, 24, Antioch Twp., remains in Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan, where he was taken by the Antioch Rescue Squad after his truck hit a utility guide wire and rolled over five or six times.

According to Antioch Police Sgt. Charles Watkins, police officers David Walsh and Mike Kulat sighted the 1972 GMC truck driven by Bates heading east on North Ave., east of Hwy. 83, at speeds exceeding 70 miles an hour in a 30 mph speed zone, just after midnight, early Monday morning.

When the officers tried to stop the truck, it picked up speed until it was going 90 mph at Deep Lake Rd. and North Ave. with the police still in pursuit.

Just before reaching the intersection of Hwy. 45, Bates' truck struck the guide wire of a telephone pole, rolled over into a field approximately five or six times, traveling 175 feet from the point where the truck struck the wire.

Bates was found 60 feet from the truck and taken to the hospital with head lacerations among other injuries. He was conscious when he was taken to the hospital.

He has been charged with aggravated fleeing and eluding of the police, speeding 70 mph in a 30 mph zone, improper lane usage, reckless driving, driving on a suspended drivers license and driving under the influence of alcohol.

Set iceless hockey sign-up

Registration for iceless hockey program in Lake Villa will take place Oct. 14 at Lake Villa Twp. Park. The sign-up will be offered from 6 to 9 p.m. For further information, contact Steve Kasco at (312) 356-2201, Gene Martin at (312) 356-2899 and Cliff Ewert at (312) 356-6521.

Registration will be for the boys junior high league, grades six and seven.

5 hours to snuff Park fire

A swamp fire at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, at the Chain O'Lakes State Park on Lake Marie in Antioch Twp. burned 200 to 300 acres of wetlands.

Although the blaze came dangerously close to area campgrounds and some homes, four fire departments finally extinguished it by 8 p.m. without injury or incident.

The blaze that sent woody animals scurrying to safety was put out by firefighters from Antioch, Lake Villa, Fox Lake and Round Lake.

Cause of the fire has not been determined although reports have drought-dry lands easily ignited.

Police healthy again

Slowly but surely the Antioch Police Dept. is again looking healthy as Lt. Tom Fisher can be seen back at his desk for a few hours each morning.

Fisher spent five days in the hospital following back surgery to correct an injury incurred during a fight at the Firement dance two years ago.

Chief Charles Miller is again a familiar face since he returned after Labor Day from a seven-month sick leave.

Miller had been suffering heartbeat problems.

Letter To The Editor

Thanks cops

Editor:

I want to offer a public vote of thanks to our Antioch Police Dept. -- specifically officers Michael Culat and Robert Lang. They were most helpful to us as our congregation hosted its first evening as a PADS site on Sunday, Oct. 2.

PADS offers 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. accommodations and meals in designated churches to the homeless of Lake County. The PADS goal is to have two churches open each evening from October through April.

PADS works closely with local police departments, the sheriff's office, the Connection hot line, and other referring agencies. These groups are supplied with a calendar of the PADS sites for each evening. Volunteers at each site call their local police and the sheriff at 7 p.m. to let them know their site is open.

One policy of PADS is that guests who arrive after 11 p.m. will be admitted only after being checked out by the local police. This is where our police merit our praise.

We had a guest arrive at 11:45 p.m. We called the police. They arrived very promptly and checked out our guest and volunteer workers.

We thank them for their good spirit. We also thank the good spirit of other congregations and service groups who supply support, gifts and volunteers for this new to our community program.

No more progress

Round Lake's Bryan Jewell is stopped cold by Grayslake defender during Homecoming contest. Jewell caught touchdown pass from quarterback Mike Bragg to begin Panthers' rally. Round Lake went on to win handily, 35-6.

Doubles team's rally gives Panthers NWSC title

The Northwest Suburban Conference tennis meet had gone pretty much as Round Lake Coach Pat Costello had expected.

That meant the final doubles match of the two-day tournament would determine the fate of three teams.

And for the Panthers, Jennifer Crawford and Jennifer Porter faced some stiff competition from Sharon Berrong and Tracie Rausch. The start of the first set did not look to promising for the Panthers as the Bears zoomed to a 5-1 lead. But showing the perseverance that has been a trademark in the Round Lake club since the start of the dual match season showed. The Crawford-Porter duo rallied to win the first set 7-5 and then took the second set handily 6-2.

"It looked grim," Costello said of the first set.

The win gave Round Lake a narrow 23-21 and two-thirds win over Lake Zurich. Johnsburg was third with 20 and one-half points. The meet was dominated by the big three, which had come into the contest all winning six of seven dual meets. The remaining teams were fighting for the leftovers and Grayslake came out on top with eight points for fourth place.

"Everyone had played up to their potential," Costello said of the matches leading up to the final doubles decision.

"We all knew it would be close," Costello said. Crawford, the senior member of the tennis tandem and Porter, a junior, now have a record of 12-3 as the Panthers and several other teams head to McHenry for sectionals Oct. 15.

The Bears captured the title at second doubles, though in a match with Round Lake. Hillary Frelk and Ingrid Mirkovich defeated the Panthers' Angela Nicholls and Lora Teschawitz 6-0, 6-4.

Johnsburg's strength came at singles, where Shelby Scott won the title at No. 1. She beat Round Lake's Nicki Duax 6-1, 6-1. Heidi Hermann, Johnsburg's number two player, won that division with a 6-1, 6-3 win over Carin Stockwell.

Lake Zurich, the home team, won third singles as Nicki Minion defeated Marian Central's Mary Rokus 6-1, 6-3.

"I think Scott has a good chance to get downstate," Grayslake Coach Paul Keller said.

Finishing behind the Rams were Marengo with five and two-thirds points, Marian Central with two and Grant and Wauconda were shutout.

WALKING FOR FITNESS

Walking is coming into its own as a way to keep physically fit. After generations of relying on the car to go even a short distance, people are rediscovering the virtues of walking.

A daily walk of a half-hour or so is good exercise. The pace, of course, can vary with the age and physical condition of the individual. Anyone who has been sedentary or has a health problem should consult a doctor before starting a walking program.

You must wear the right shoes to enjoy walking as exercise. Choose shoes for comfort, not fashion. Buy shoes that are flexible, provide cushioning and above all fit correctly. Avoid shoes that "just fit" - they will be too tight when the feet expand while walking. Check especially for adequate space for the toes.

If any problems develop, see your podiatrist.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters celebrate 5 years

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County celebrates five years of providing services on Tuesday, Oct. 18, at the First Presbyterian Church in Libertyville.

Former and currently active volunteers, donors, families and children served and friends of the Agency are invited to join the celebration.

The Big Brother/Big Sister movement has been active for 84 years with 460 agencies throughout the country.

Lake County was without this unique one-to-one, adult volunteer to child, service until a very dynamic single parent spearheaded the formation of a new agency. She recognized the critical need for a male role model for her eight-year-old son who had been without a consistent male figure for some time. In her search for help, she found no organization in Lake County able to help in her struggle.

It was in 1979, by efforts of this concerned parent, that the grass roots foundation of Big Brothers/Big Sisters began in Lake County.

A board was organized, a needs assessment completed, and an affiliation agreement was negotiated with Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America. Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America. Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County was incorporated in 1980. Funds were sought and in 1983 the first staff was hired, the doors were opened, and the first Big Brother/Little Brother match was made to be followed shortly by the first Big Sister/Little Sister match.

Nearly 13 million children in the United States today, 16,000 in Lake County, are growing up in one-parent families, and the numbers are growing each year.

County election judges are at an all-time high

Increasing the pay for Lake County election judges and stepping up the recruitment procedures are two reasons Lake County Clerk Linda Hess gives for having an increase in the number of folks agreeing to serve as judges.

"We actually have 2890 election judges in our computer file right now," said Hess, "which is a 4-year high."

"There's no doubt that the increase in pay has helped," she noted, "but the lion's share of the credit should go to Lake County residents who have responded to our cries for help. Since the problem was brought to light a year or so ago, many of you have helped to spread the message."

"In addition, our office has stepped up its recruitment efforts which has helped immensely. One post card mailing aimed at checking on voters' current addresses also included an appeal for election judges and netted us about 250 new judges.

"We don't want to rest on our laurels," said Hess, "we need to keep up our efforts to recruit and maintain judges for smooth election days."

Gurnee, Wadsworth Lions prepare for Candy Day

by NANCY LONG
(312)244-2512

Friday, Oct. 14 is Lions Club Candy Day all over the state of Illinois.

Please be generous when a Lions member or volunteer approaches you to distribute the delicious Lions candy. All proceeds from candy sales go to help the blind and deaf. A percentage of donations will go to the Lions of Illinois Foundation which supports the Illinois Eye Research Institute and the Eye Bank, Hadley School for the Blind, Leader Dogs, and other organizations helping the blind and deaf. The remainder of the donations go toward the local Lions Club's "Blind Activities Fund" to provide free eye exams, glasses, hearing aids, etc. to area residents in need. Local Lions Clubs participating in Candy Day are the Gurnee Lions, Wadsworth Lions, and Gagewood Lions. They will be assisted by volunteers as well as the Wadsworth and Gagewood Lioness Clubs and the Gurnee Leo Club.

Ladies, interested in a women's club that meets during the day?

You are invited to come to a Pot Luck luncheon at noon on Monday, Oct. 17, at the Warren-Newport Library. Sponsoring the membership luncheon is the Warren-Newport Women's Afternoon Club.

The club, which normally meets at 1 p.m. on the third Monday of the month at the library, is primarily a social group which does some philanthropic work. Their main community service concern is the Warren-Newport Library. Membership is open to all women in the area.

Spaulding School Principal Jim Lienhardt welcomed students, parents and staff in the first Spaulding School newsletter of the 1988-89 school year.

Lienhardt reminded parents that the school is happy to have parents visit, but requests that they call ahead to make sure that the class activity on that day would not be disrupted by visitors.

Parents dropping off children in the morning between 7:30 and 8 a.m. should drop them off only at the front, west entrance by the solar kindergarten. Parents dropping off children after 8 a.m. may use any front entrance. This is to ensure the children's safety due to the numerous buses using the school's drive. Students who are tardy should first report to the main office before going to their class.

All parents who are picking up students during the school day or after school must come into the school and report to the main office. Children will be called to the office to meet parents. Parents should not go directly to the classroom to pick up children or wait outside their child's classroom. Spaulding School maintains this policy for the safety and welfare of the children.

Parents and visitors should not park in front of Spaulding School during dismissal time. The entire front driveway is used for buses only between 2:15 to 2:45 p.m. Parents may park in the lots on either the east or west sides of the school.

Help is needed with the Gurnee Community Church's Library. Barb Medel got the library started about 18 months ago, but there is still much to be done.

Non-fiction and fiction must be distinguished and filed either alphabetically or by number (non-fiction). Author and title cards also need to be typed. Some of this work is the type that can be done at home. Karen White can use a few more volunteers to help with this project.

White is also looking for volunteers to help with the Meals on Wheels project. Meals on Wheels began four years ago in Lake County. Gurnee Community Church participates by being a drop off place for the meals. One week a month some members deliver these meals.

Meals are delivered Monday through Friday, except on holidays. Most often, two volunteers deliver meals. The meals are usually at the church by 11:30 a.m. and delivery takes about an hour. Food containers are returned to the church.

This program is for people over the age of 60 that are house bound and cannot get out.

Do you have some work that needs to be done around the house but no time to do it? Do you want to make a meaningful contribution to the needs of others?

The church could use a full-time volunteer for Thursday, and people willing to fill in when someone is away or ill. It will only take an hour or two of your time, one day a month.

Wildwood planning haunted park

The Wildwood Park Dist.'s Haunted Park will be held on Saturday, Oct. 29 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. (rain date Oct. 30) at Twin Lakes Park.

Children must be accompanied by an adult. This will be scary, not suggested for small children who scare easily. This event is free.

Teen and adult ghosts, goblins, witches and assorted things that go bump in the night are needed to help for the Haunted Park. Hard work, lots of laughs and an opportunity to scare little kids and your friends. For more information call the W.P.D. office at (312)223-7275 and leave your name and phone number.

Two positions as commissioners for the Wildwood Park Dist. are open for the April 4, 1989 election. W.P.D. commissioners meet monthly to oversee the business of the parks and beaches, and spending of funds. Wildwood Park Dist. residents interested in running in the April election may pick up their filing papers and information on the requirements for candidacy at the W.P.D. office at Sears and Sunset in Wildwood late this month.

The next W.P.D. board meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Warren Twp.

center on Washington St. The public is welcome to attend.

The park district office is located on the second floor of the barn behind the Wildwood Presbyterian Church at Sears and Sunset.

Some Questions About Your Child's Health?

1. Does your child complain of chronic tiredness?
2. Does your child suffer from chronic colds or sore throats or earaches?
3. Does your child have chronic ear infections?
4. Does your child have a poor appetite?
5. Does your child complain of headaches or backaches?
6. Is your child enthusiastic and active?
7. Does your teenager sprain joints easily?
8. Is your teenager excessively moody?
9. Does your teenager suffer from menstrual tension, blues or cramps?
10. Does your child have poor posture?

Children are naturally playful and active and they introduce their bodies to insults and injuries, ranging from those barely noticeable to those obviously damaging. If your child is not healthy you should know that anyone with a lingering illness or a health problem can get well, provided the right thing is done. The cause of the trouble must be found and corrected in order that health may be restored.

Chiropractors are especially trained and skilled in analyzing the spinal column to determine any type of problem, whether it is the result of poor posture, an injury, or a congenital problem. The doctor of chiropractic is concerned with your child's overall health.

Utilizing the benefits of a good chiropractic checkup program for your children won't keep you from cringing every time you see them without their hats in the rain and cold, or witness them plowing into the concrete at the roller rink, etc., but it certainly gives you the assurance that they are receiving the very best in preventive health maintenance.

Two trucks
spell love, fun on job

by JAN AND JERRY SWANSON

Editor's note: Jan and Jerry Swanson are owner-operators hauling for Bernardi Cartage. They are residents of Lake Zurich. A former interior designer with a college background, Jan writes in her own words about how she became a semi-truck driver five years ago, an occupation she admits was the farthest from her thoughts at one time.

My husband has been driving for 17 years and he was committed to that truck, not only the long hours driving, but also at night pulling maintenance to keep them running.

You just don't realize the work that has to be done on these trucks. This was hard for me as we didn't have much time together. If I could persuade him to teach me to drive that would solve my problem. I was after him for two years to put on a second semi-dump, so I would drive. Naturally Jerry had misgivings, he wanted to get a six wheeler, thinking it would be easier for me to learn how to drive it. My comment was, "I want to drive a whole truck (semi-dump), not half of one!"

I started driving in October of 1983. It was hard physical work and long hours. Jerry was very patient and understanding with me, most others were very helpful, especially the people at Meyer Material's gravel pits and ready mix yards. I really didn't start to feel comfortable with driving until late November. Then the first snow. What a funny feeling trying to drive the big heavy truck on slick and snow covered roads. This scared the heck out of me; as it was hard to stop on the slick streets. What if a car pulled out in front of me, at the last second. I had my first brush with a car not long after.

It was raining and a car passed me on my right coming up to an intersection, of course I hit the brakes but the trailer started to jackknife and I slid off the road. Jerry was right behind me when the accident happened, running up to the truck to see if I was hurt. I was really shaken up, plus a few bruises, and furious with the other driver.

That evening at home I was sitting in the living room just staring and very upset. Jerry asked what was the matter, "I could have killed that idiot today, and it was not my fault. That would have been on my mind for the rest of my life." Being very understanding he said, "you do not ever have to get in that truck again if you don't want to." We usually run together with both trucks, from the pit to a job. This is a good idea in case I would have trouble with the truck, help is right behind me. I'm a wimp and proud of it. That's the second reason.

Close calls with a car are hard on both of us when you are running together. You see what the other person goes through every day in all kinds of traffic and weather conditions, and that leaves you with a much better understanding of the mental stress and strain of this demanding job. Once cut off by a passing car, their comment was "you have brakes too!"

I feel much more confident since the accident. Being afraid of the unknown is one thing, but you are much more afraid of the known. This makes you a much better driver, as the pressure is off, and I learned from this mistake, never take another driver for granted.

A second incident that took a few years off my life, when I was spreading gravel on a housing development road. Just after the trailer emptied itself and was all the way raised up in the air, I ran over a sewer pipe sticking up about eight inches above the ground. I felt the trailer sway back and forth, but it did not tip over, with the truck. Why not I will never know, I was very lucky I guess! You have to be very cautious of overhead electrical wires, when raising the high dump trailer, and any objects on the ground, construction sites are cluttered with many hazards.

I feel very safe when Jerry and I are working together, just knowing he is there. I have learned to drive on my own. Jerry hurt his back changing a tire on the truck and missed over a month of work. Thanks to all the help from the other drivers and the kind of people at Meyer Material. A close friend of ours worked on the truck while Jerry was laid up, changing oil, grease, tires etc. This was a great help to us.

My father-in-law bought me a can of mace to carry in my purse if I ever had any trouble alone. Thank God I have never had to use it. Twice I have taken verbal abuse from people accusing me of breaking their car windshield with a stone falling from the truck. This would have been impossible as I was hauling a load of sand both times!

I always make sure I clean off my trailer and spreadpan of loose rocks and sand before I leave the pit. That is a responsibility I owe to other drivers on the road.

I think the most fun I have had driving the truck was when the DesPlaines River flooded. The flooded roads were closed to auto traffic, yet the big trucks had very little trouble getting through as you are much higher off the street. Someone in a car would always try to follow the truck into the flooded area. I was amazed that a (Continued on Page 15)

Studio aims for tops
in fine arts field

Under new ownership, horizons are expanding at Studio in the Woods, an art school and gallery.

By this time next year, the new owner hopes the school on Fairfield Rd., Wauconda, will have a national reputation.

Besides expanding for both the fine arts community and the general public owner, Tom Hilligoss aims to conduct a national arts workshop in 1989 as the cap stone of future plans.

Hilligoss, formerly of Barrington Hills, has extended an invitation to the public to visit the school during an open house from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 15 and 16, to learn more about his plans.

There's a tremendous opportunity to bring culture and art appreciation to this part of the county and surrounding area. I want to build on the reputation of Studio in the Woods," declared Hilligoss, whose background is product designing with a concentration on children's toys and gifts.

Hilligoss purchased the studio located in a grove of hardwood trees from Bonnie Anderson, who founded the school 20 years ago. It has been at its present location 10 years.

The school/gallery has 200 students and nine teachers. Two instructors will be added.

"I bet few people are aware that Studio in the Woods has a gallery with facilities for displaying the works of outstanding artists. There have been sell outs of hangings of 25 to 30 works in the past. That's really something," stressed Hilligoss, who hopes to expand the gallery beyond its present scope.

He said a new emphasis will be put on water color, a medium that is part of every art show.

Hilligoss wants to bring some of the super stars of fine arts to Studio in the Woods, located just south of Rte. 176.

"We've got an excellent location and a great setting. I don't see any reason why area residents won't respond to a cultural opportunity," the new owner stated.

Business series cited Lake Co. residents in state competition object to landfill site

Lakeland Newspapers won awards in four categories in the 1988 Illinois Press Assn. newspaper contest.

The 14 community newspaper group

Children, youth seminar slated

Lake County representatives, Mrs. May Loquidis, auxiliary president and Mrs. Jean Keehn, auxiliary district children and youth chairman will attend the American Legion Children and Youth Seminar to be held Saturday, Oct. 15, at the Ramada Inn in Bloomington. Guest speakers will be present to speak on, "Teen Age Suicide", "Drug Abuse", "Child Abuse", and the subject "Missing Children".

was awarded first place in business reporting. Lakeland also was cited for excellence in three other categories--feature writing, design and community service.

Awards were presented at a convention held in St. Louis, the 123rd annual meeting of the organization, the largest press association in the nation.

Publisher William H. Schroeder was among former IPA presidents honored for past service. The past presidents were presented a framed Norman Rockwell print as a memento.

Judges selected Lakeland's continuing series, Entrepreneur, for business reporting recognition. The series spotlights individual achievement in business and commerce.

CLEAR (Citizens of Lake County for Environmental Action Reform) submitted the signatures of 3,600 Lake County residents to the Lake County Board. As part of its written public comment regarding the waste management application for a 160-acre landfill at Peterson Rd. and Rte. 83, it also submitted a letter objecting to the siting.

Bases for the objection are:

- Reduced property value of existing and proposed housing for the area.
- Increase of traffic by an estimated 207 garbage trucks per day in transit to and from the landfill.

- The possibility of future leakage of contaminated leachate into groundwater that supplies wells to the surrounding area and responsibility for liability.

- The history of landfills which have overburdened the residents in that area.

- The fact that a landfill does not fit the character of the surrounding area. The landfill would eventually contain four 131-foot "knolls", that height being the equivalent of six feet up the wall of the Lake County Building's tenth floor hearing room.

- The growth of voluntary recycling in Lake County.

Council success results in $121,744 award

"Assisting welfare recipients in obtaining employment is not something new for the Private Industry Council of Lake County," said Robert Broda at the close of the monthly council meeting. The meeting was held at the Lambs in Libertyville.

Broda, council chairman, cited the fact that in the 1987-89 program year, which closed June 30, 289 individuals were trained by the Private Industry Council, taken off public aid rolls and placed into permanent employment, representing a welfare saving to various governmental public assistance agencies of more than $860,000.

This achievement, along with six other outstanding performance examples, resulted in an additional

Robert Broda
$121,744 coming to Lake County to be used in this current year to assist a larger number of unemployed persons.

The Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs, which monitors Council operations, made the award on the basis of the local Council's exceeding all seven of the seven performance standards which are applied by the state for Job Training Partnership Act grantees.

"The entered-employment rate for all PIC training programs was exceptionally high this year," Broda said.

"sixty-eight percent of those who were trained through PIC were placed in jobs after training."

He said successfully employed individuals had earnings of $5.3 million in excess of the cost of training them, and that the new purchasing power of formerly unemployed individuals contributes to the Lake County economy.

"A conservative estimate is that $8.3 million dollars were earned by those who were trained and then employed through PIC," Broda said.

The Private Industry Council assists companies as well as individuals. One training program operated by the PIC employs companies to teach specific job skills to the unskilled workers they've hired. For their good services in this important training technique, businesses were reimbursed a total of over $194,000.

"Very often," Broda said, "these payments enhanced the companies' cash flow at a critical time of expansion or even of start-up."

Two trucks

car kept following me and the water was over the trucks fuel tank, almost into the cab. Needless to say the car soon stalled, causing a traffic jam.

Jerry tried to get around the stalled car, but fell off the shoulder of the road. It's very hard to judge the edge of the road under water; and he got stuck. I had to turn around and pull him out with my loaded truck, to the amusement of the other passing trucks. A few cracks were made about his wife having to pull him out. Jerry was not in the mood for teasing after a long hard day, and then have that happen!

I have more sympathy now for Jerry and understand the problems that go with the job.

Hackers break code

They said it couldn't be done. The International Business Machines salesman that sold the Lake Villa School Dist. new computers—to now provide one for each grade—and programs said the code could not be broken. Wrong. Less than three weeks into the school year students did it. They broke the code and, instead of school work, began communicating with one another over the network. IBM has called in the experts for help.

Back CLC increase

Unless you have children or grandchildren attending the local elementary grade school or high school, the College of Lake County has more impact on the daily lives of this community than any other school. The same holds true for families with students at one of the state's tax supported schools of higher education.

More than 13,000 students of all ages take classes each semester at CLC. An eye-popping 220,000 students have attended CLC since its opening 20 years ago. More than one-third of the students take their first two years at CLC, and then transfer to a four-year institution for degree attainment.

CLC officials list more than 10,000 persons a year taking skill courses or career enhancement training. A big part of the CLC enrollment take brush-up courses in reading, language, writing and math to find better jobs or continue their education. Cultural enrichment studies and programs probably involve more persons than any other CLC activity.

In short, CLC has a pretty impressive record, doing just about everything asked of it by voters when they formed the junior college district two decades ago. Our purpose in reciting this enviable record of attainment is to underscore recognition of the fact that the local college is being threatened with curtailment of its far-reaching program because of public education's nagging bugaboo—shrinking funds.

Tough financial sledding is ahead, not because of mismanagement, but because of a combination of circumstances. While CLC has been living with its original 19-cent-tax rate (13 cents for education and six cents for building), inflation has taken its toll, tremendous growth has been experienced, state funding has been reduced from 33 percent to 22 percent, and tuition has been increased more than 300 percent.

Whether CLC's financial picture constitutes a crisis is not the issue. We're more than a little tired of dealing with all the educational crisis. Frankly, the public has become shock-proof. The CLC situation boils down to the school's needs and needs of individual citizens. In our opinion, taxpayers get more for their money from CLC than any other school district, and we're not saying this to denigrate our local primary and secondary schools. The fact remains that by voting an increase in the CLC rate Nov. 8, citizens will continue to receive the high level of service that we talked about above.

Dr. Daniel LaVista, CLC trustees and the staff have built an excellent case for the increase of 11 cents being asked at the general election which would bring the CLC total rate to 30 cents. This translates into an increase of about $37 for a home with a market value of $100,000. It's fairly easy to compute how much the increase will add to individual tax bills. Without being too blunt, you should be able to get a return on this investment manyfold simply by involving yourself with some of the CLC educational or cultural offerings.

The need is clear-cut. CLC is deserving and worthy of the support of taxpayers. We heartily endorse passage of the modest rate increase that will ensure a forward-moving local community college.

A failing system

Two distinct groups predominate in the U.S. Senate—aging millionaires who are self-appointed statesmen and glip wealthy young men with movie star good looks who are media nurtured to roles of leadership. By coincidence, the two major political parties have selected their vice president nominees from these ranks in 1988.

It's no credit to the American political process that voters and convention delegates had no input in the selection of Sen. Lloyd Bentsen or Sen. Dan Quayle as vice presidential standard bearers for the Democratic and Republican parties respectively. Ironically, Bentsen and Quayle have been thrust into unexpected prominence, their candidacies in many respects overshadowing the two nominees for president. Now prospects have developed where the Nov. 8 outcome could very well hinge not on the qualifications and merits of Vice President George Bush and Gov. Michael Dukakis, but their running mates.

This possibility leaves doubt about the selection process. Chieftains in both parties approached the vice presidential candidate selection with uncharacteristic hypocrisy, the Democrats selecting a candidate with a political record and philosophy almost 180 degrees opposite of the presidential hopeful and the Republicans going for a professional politician with a so-so record little known outside his home state.

Apathy and frustration on the part of the American electorate are a direct result of the disgust in the vice president selection process. If Quayle and Bentsen are the best their parties can offer, the voters have been betrayed. The system has failed.

Rather than concerning themselves about the popular "heartbeat theory" regarding the vice presidential candidates, voters would do well to pray for the good health and luck of their favorite to finish out four years if elected before they vote Nov. 8.

Frankly, we're sick and tired of aging millionaires and pretty boys being offered up to us by the party pros for leadership. Where are the craggy-faced, tousled-haired senators of the past who had more going for them than a fat wallet or a glip tongue? Oh, if there were only some more Bob Tafts and Paul Douglas' out there.

Ban on smoking dentist's goal for hometown

by BILL SCHIROEDER

Dr. Henry H. Seifer fought the Germans during World War II to preserve freedom for America. Now he's fighting smoking to preserve the health of America.

A practicing dentist in Chicago who resides in Fox Lake, Dr. Seifer has declared a personal war on nicotine addiction, which is just another form of drug addiction as far as he's concerned. He calls nicotine the most addictive drug, killing 350,000 persons yearly.

The lanky medical professional, who earned the Bronze Star in five campaigns in Europe, declared, "I learned about smoking the hard way." Formerly a heavy smoker, he said he had surgery on a diseased lung before he quit.

As part of his battle, Seifer has petitioned the Fox Lake council to impose a ban on smoking at all public meetings. "I think I was favorably received. I was asked to get more documentation," related Seifer.

That's not going to be a problem. There is ample evidence to support smoking controls imposed by municipalities across the land. He cited New York City, Morton Grove and Skokie. A Chicago ordinance segregating smokers in restaurants works well, in Dr. Seifer's opinion. Now he wants his hometown to take a positive stand. "All of us must do everything possible to build optimum health. Without this effort, nothing is worthwhile."

ONE MAN'S FAMILY---How does a U of I alum handle the Purdue vs. Illinois game when your son is a Boilermaker. This ex-Illini and latter day Purdue fan wore his worn orange cords, a Boiler cap and cheered for all the good plays, whichever team had the ball. Probably looked---and sounded---pretty silly, but what's a guy to do?

Politically speaking....

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Robert "Bob" Collins of morning radio fame on WGN appears to be solidly entrenched among the movers and shakers of Lake County Republican politics. For several years he was closely identified with the late Sheriff Robert "Mickey" Babcox.

When Clinton "Clint" Grinnell made the June announcement he was going from No. 2 to the No. 1 man in the department, Collins was there.

Now, the radio voice of morning drive time is going to show up on behalf of Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman. It will be for a reception on Friday, Oct. 21, at the Highland Park Country Club for 500 persons. Among others attending will be Gov. James Thompson, Lt. Gov. George Ryan, Sec. of State James Edgar and, hopefully, a surprise guest from the Bush/Quayle campaign.

This is pretty heavy stuff for a guy who isn't into shirts and ties and loves motorcycles. A resident of Libertyville for many years, he is in the process of moving closer to his work. He rises at 3 a.m., jumps into his four-wheel drive vehicle, and is at work well before the 5:30 a.m. sign on. That's so he can be back home in the early afternoon and evening to emcee affairs like Foreman's

In his re-election bid for state's attorney, Fred Foreman is running hard. He's dropping names all over the place, names like the late sheriff, Robert Babcox, and Congressman Robert McClory, who also passed away this year.

His current-campaign letter to friends mentions these two as serving as finance chairman and honorary chairman, respectively, of his past campaign. It concludes by saying: "I wish to dedicate the endeavors of my campaign to the memory and honor of these two friends and outstanding Republicans."

Foreman

Collins

Sheriff Clint Grinnell is running hard. Just look at all of the signs along the highways and byways of Lake County. They started showing up everywhere last weekend when volunteers with truckloads of red "Elect Sheriff Grinnell" signs suddenly blossomed overnight. This is what might be called saturation campaigning.

Scouting Report

BY STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

Carmel at St. Viator

Date: Oct. 14

Location: Forest View Educational Center Stadium, Arlington Heights.

Keys to game: Carmel's defense comes into the game off a two-game stretch in which it has held the opposition scoreless. On offense, running back Matt Simmons leads the 6-1 Corsairs into the East Suburban Catholic Conference clash. St. Viator is also 3-1 in the ESCC, so not only can Carmel clinch a playoff bid, but it can also stay in contention for an ESCC title as well.

Grayslake at Marengo

Date: Oct. 14

Location: Marengo High School

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Both Rams and Indians are coming off the second wins of the year. Rams feature the quarterbacking talents of senior Timm West, whose favorite target is wide receiver Mark Pasck. Out of the backfield, John Bouma and Mike Ducane do most of the running. Marengo quarterback Mike Fischer is coming off a strong game in an 18-7 win over Lake Zurich.

Zion-Benton at Stevenson

Date: Oct. 14

Location: Stevenson High School, Prairie View

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Frustrating has been the word for the Patriots this fall, who are 1-5. "They are the best-looking 1-5 team," Warren Coach Reggie Hughes said. The Pats appear to have bitten off more than they could chew in assigning Zion-Benton as the Homecoming game. The Zee-Bees are undefeated at 6-0 and running back Donald Farmer is coming off a four-touchdown, 250 yard day against Warren. But what better way to start the second half of the season with a win over the conference champs for Homecoming?

Lake Zurich at Grant

Date: Oct. 15

Location: Lewis Field, Grant High School, Fox Lake

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Grant's offense came to life in a 21-8 win over Johnsburg which ruined the Skyhawk Homecoming. Junior Steve Maiworm scored a touchdown as did quarterback Joe Wach and Bryan Kasumura. The game will be decided in the age-old "pits" area. The young and improving line for Grant, 2-4, 1-3, will be matched up against a bigger Lake Zurich line. The Bears are a frustrating 1-5 and are led by quarterback Scott Kreminski and running back Mike Kloss.

Marian Central at Wauconda

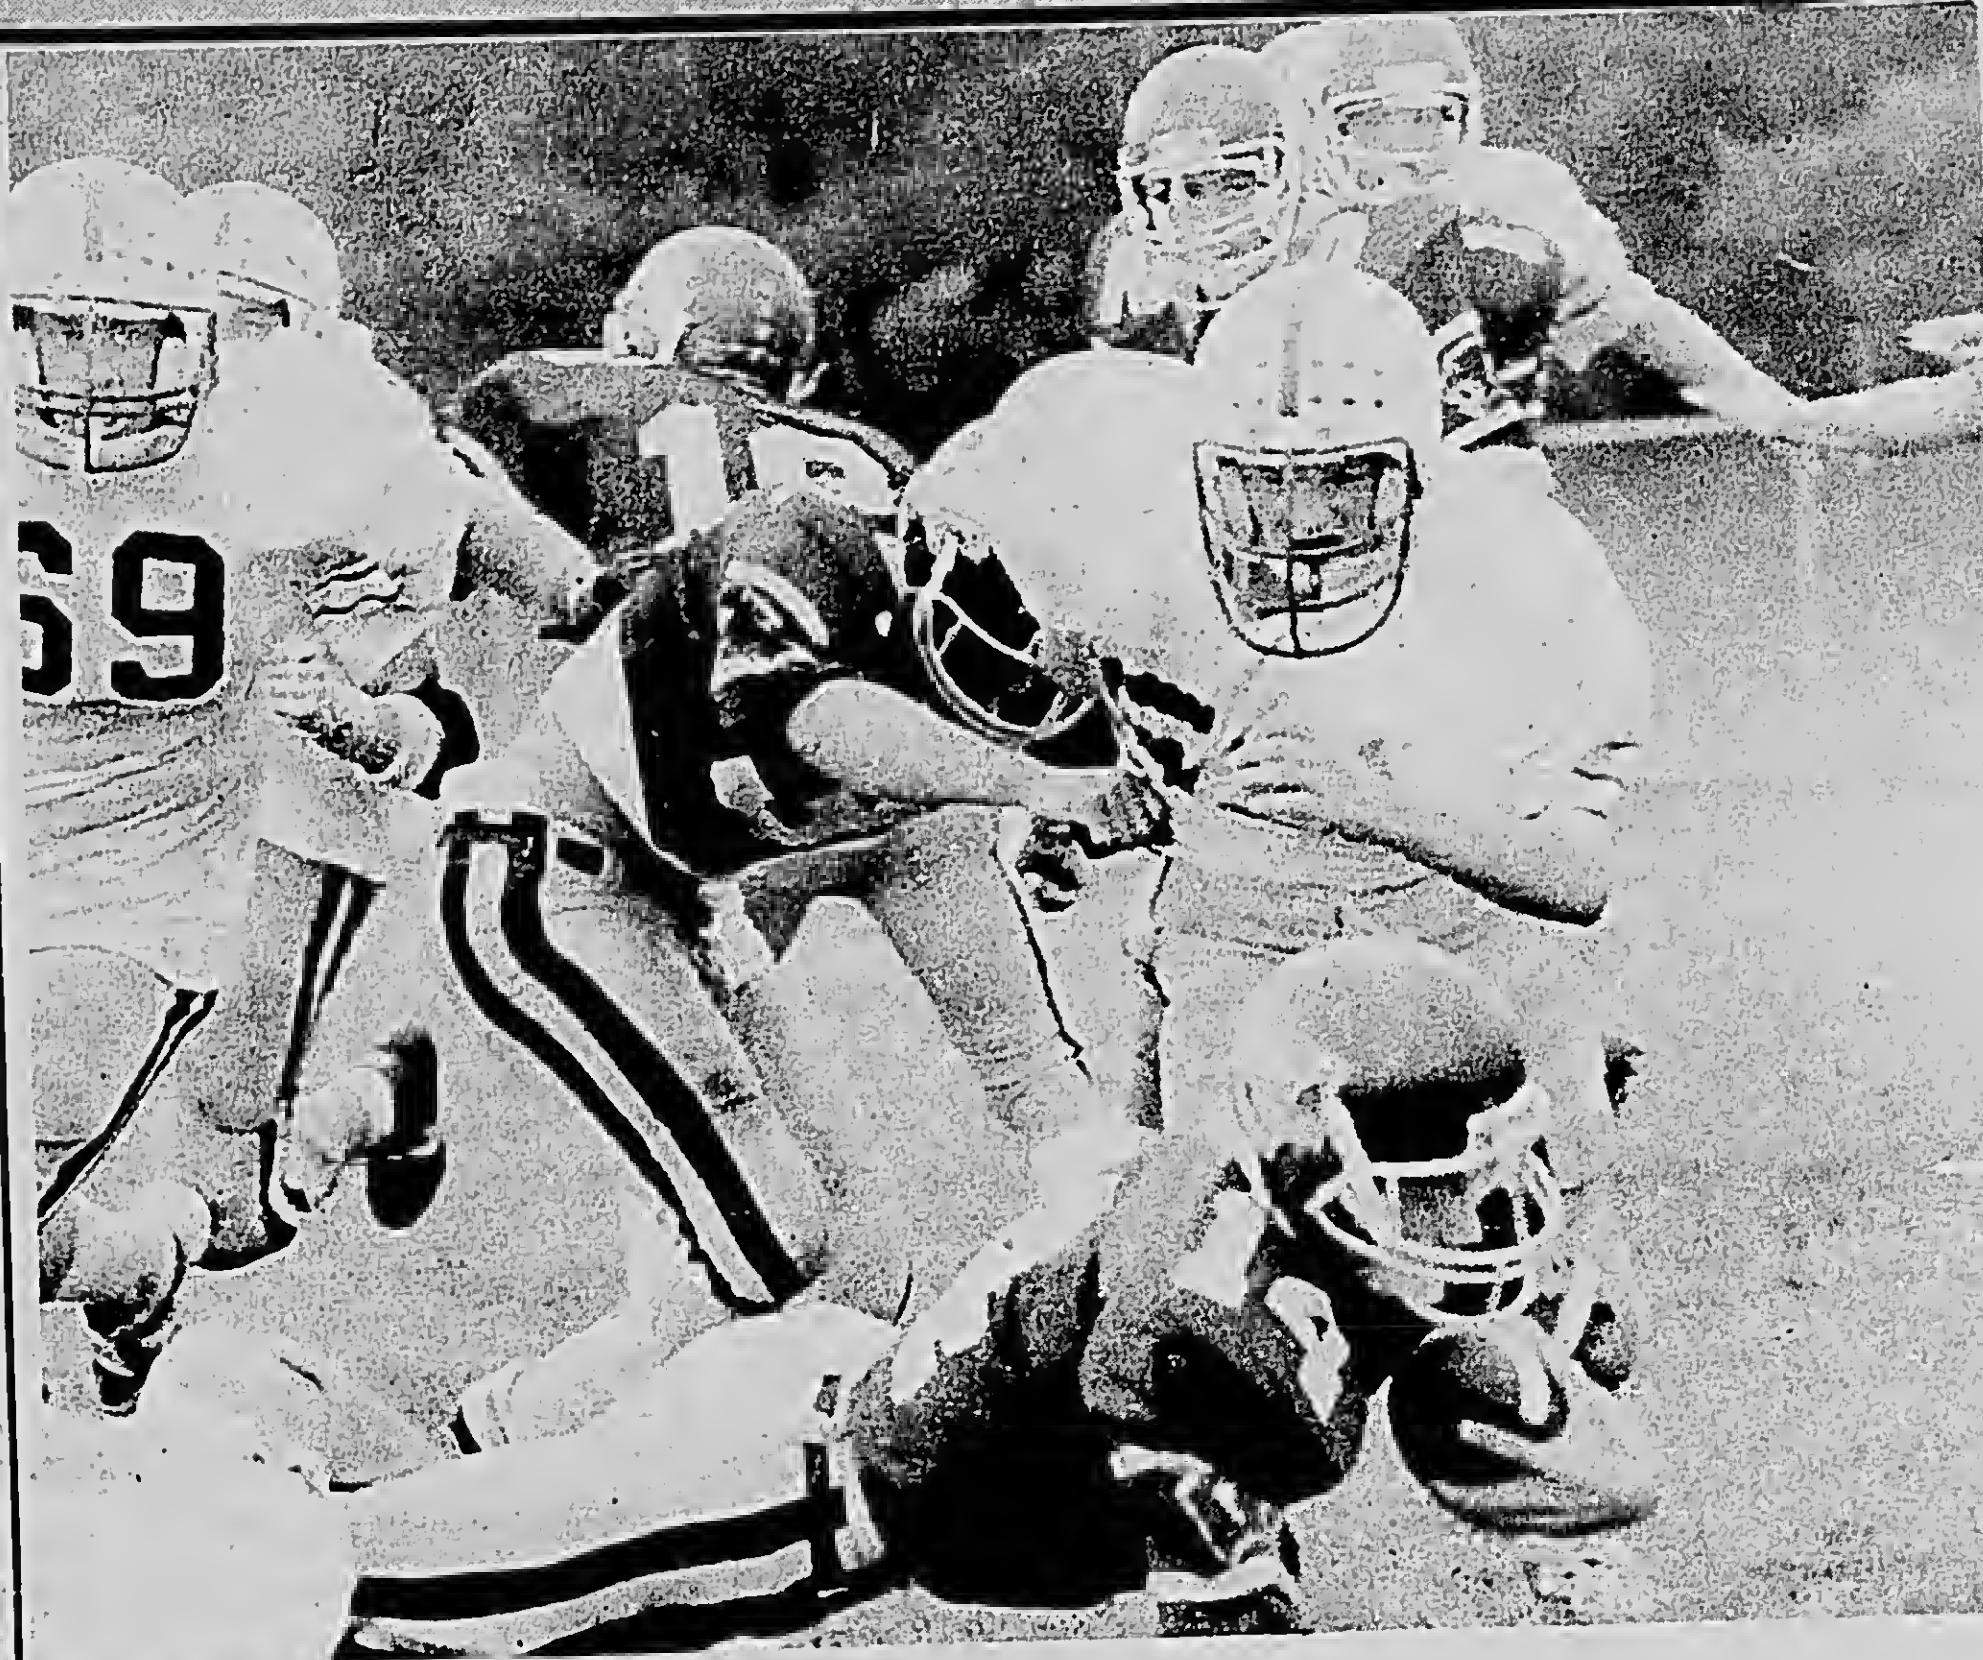

Date: Oct. 15

Location: Wauconda High School

Game time: 1 p.m.

Keys to game: Two weeks ago, it appeared this game could go along way to determine the Northwest Suburban Conference leader. But Wauconda, now 4-2, 3-1, slipped at Grayslake last week while Marian Central remained perfect in conference.

No more progress

Round Lake's Keith Krause strives for a few extra yards as Grayslake tacklers attempt to put a stop to his progress. The Panthers spotted archrival Rams 35-6 for Homecoming win.

Panthers must bounce back from critical loss, though, when they host Johnsburg Oct. 14. Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Robert Puro Field.

Sixth proves sweet as Grayslake golfers win NWSC title again

After winning five straight Northwest Suburban Conference golf titles, no one could blame Grayslake Coach Cherie Paddock for feeling somewhat confident about her team's chances in August.

Paddock, who made the pre-season headlines by playing 110 holes of golf in one day at Renwood Country Club with State Rep. Robert Churchill, had a different emotion early in the season, though.

"I thought we would have a good chance but then we lost to Marengo it really looked bleak," Paddock said.

And a poor showing two days earlier at regionals may have had Paddock asking herself questions about the team's abilities going into the Oct. 6 NWSC match at Renwood.

Consistency led the Rams to this year's title. The meet was delayed an hour because of a heavy frost on the course, but that did not stop Grayslake from placing three golfers in the top 10 and four in the top 11.

When the dust was settled after the playoff holes for medals, the Rams had shot a 335 team score, nine shots better than their closest rival, Marengo. The Indians edged Round Lake 345-347 for second place. Marian Central had 362 and Wauconda edged Lake Zurich 366-369.

Sophomore Andy Green and teammate Tim Hough battled for medalist honors with the Rams's Green coming in ahead, nipping Hough by one shot.

"I felt more pressure Tuesday at regionals," Green said afterward.

Green moved to Grayslake this summer from Arizona and while he likes winning conference medalist honors, he would like to return home to Tucson. This time on a golf-scholarship to Arizona State.

The soph has shot a two-under par 70 at Renwood this season and said the course was pretty dry by the time he started.

Green, who has played nine holes in the 30 range, said there is a difference in playing the 18-hole format. "You have to concentrate a lot more," he said.

The top NWSC golfer had eight pars and four birdies along with six bogies on the day.

In addition to Green and Hough, Grayslake's Jason Dvorsak placed sixth with an 86. The Rams as a team had three of the four top scorers finish in the 80's or 90's.

For the third-place Panthers, who also call Renwood home, Darryl Boone had an 83 including a 38 on the back nine to finish fifth, Jason Day had an 86 and Jim Donohoe an 87 to lead the efforts.

Frank Salemi of Marengo had a 42-40, 82 to finish third.

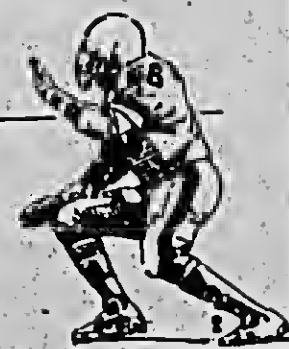

Brian Schroeder led Lake Zurich's efforts with an 86.

play. The Hurricanes may return quarterback Bob Parsley to his starting berth after an early-season injury. The Hurricanes' only weakness in the come-from-behind 30-13 win over Round Lake was the kickoff coverage.

Antioch at Warren

Date: Oct. 15

Game time: 2 p.m.

Location: Warren Twp. High School, Gurnee.

Keys to game: Blue Devils and Scquoits both come into the game at 2-4, but you can throw the records out when these rivals meet. Antioch Coach Del Pechauer, whose team ended a month of frustration last week with 14-9 win over Mundelein, respects Warren's defense. Warren mentor Reggie Hughes is concerned about two factors: A) Warren's poor Homcoming record and B) the lack of execution on offense.

Mundelein at Libertyville

Date: Oct. 15

Location: Walter Johnson Field, Libertyville High School

Game time: 2 p.m.

Keys to game: Mustangs, 3-3, will make short bus-ride down Rte. 176 in hopes of reviving their playoff chances. Mundelein's 14-9 loss to Antioch last week puts them in a must-win situation. Coach Gary Heifner is hoping that his team can cash in on chances. Last week Mundelein reached the Antioch 20 four times but only had one touchdown to show for their efforts. Like the Warren-Antioch matchup, records mean little in this game.

Lancers spikers learn, bounce back to win

The most beneficial thing one can have happen after a mistake is to learn from it, experts sometimes say.

Such was the case for the College of Lake County's women's volleyball team. The Lancers, after a tough five-game loss to Elgin, bounced back to beat Wright in four games and earn a split in Skyway Conference action last week.

"We watched the videotape and went over what we did wrong on offense and defense. The loss to Elgin may have helped us for the future," CLC coach Diane VanderKooy said.

The Lancers, who are preparing for the Skyway Conference meet Oct. 29, have non-conference matches this week. They travel to Freeport to take on Highland Oct. 18 and to Moraine Valley Oct. 20.

Against Elgin, the visiting Spartans opened the match with a 15-11 win. CLC then took command with two 15-11, 15-10 victories that put the home team one game away from a win. But Elgin then dominated the final two games, winning both 15-9.

"Serving was what killed us the first game," VanderKooy said.

CLC trailed early in game two as well before tying it at 8-8 on a Gail Gilgore point. Elgin went ahead again but CLC caught the Spartans at 11-11 on a Tracey Niewiedzial serve.

Grayslake grad Cheryll Sneyd and Grant High grad Kerry Wilson the led the Lancers to the win. The game ended on an ace by Wilson.

CLC trailed again in game three but tied the contest at 10-10 and outscored the visitors 5-0 the rest of the way. Again, it was Wilson that did the honors in closing the game.

The last game was closer, with both teams tied at 9-9 before Elgin took over.

Carmel looking for strong defensive showing

Football fans attending the Carmel-St. Viator game in Arlington Heights Oct. 14 should probably not count on a high-scoring contest.

Carmel's defense has registered two straight shutouts after giving up 49 points to Joliet Catholic. The Corsairs, 3-1 in the East Suburban Catholic Conference and 5-1 overall, had Holy Cross as its latest gooseegg as the Corsairs shutout the Crusaders 18-0.

"They (St. Viator) always have a good defense and this year is no exception," Carmel Coach Mike Fitzgibbons said.

Indeed, the Crusaders' stingy defenders have allowed a league-best 63 points. But on the other side of the line, the St. Viator offense has one of the lower totals, 70 points. Last week's close 6-0 loss to Joliet Catholic is typical of the St. Viator scores.

"They like to run the ball with Dinicavy (Brian) and play for one or two scores," Carmel Coach Mike Fitzgibbons said.

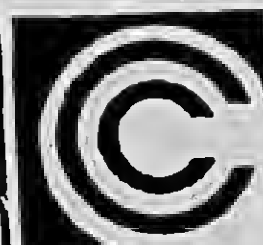

Carmel and Holy Cross were locked in a defensive struggle in the first quarter before Carmel dominated the second quarter with a single drive. The visitors marched 94 yards with Matt Simmons scoring the first of two touchdowns.

VanDeusen, ex-judge, to head Citizens for CLC

Lloyd VanDeusen, retired justice of the Illinois Appellate Court, was elected as chairman of Citizens for CLC, an organization formed to raise public support for the Nov. 8 College of Lake County tax rate referendum.

VanDeusen, of Waukegan, was formerly a circuit judge of the 19th judicial circuit.

Other officers in the organization, elected previously, include secretary Lois

Haines of Highland Park, treasurer-Lee Cieslak of Grayslake, and public information officer-Florence Babusek of Antioch.

Individuals interested in joining Citizens for CLC may contact Mary Pat Cavanaugh at (312)223-5959. Membership fees are $20 per person; funds will be used to generate referendum support throughout the county.

Locals get Allstate awards

Fifty-four Chicago-area students were awarded $1,000 Allstate Foundation Scholarships. They include Paul Washburn of Mundelein, at Northern Illinois University, and Suzanne Woodard of Lake Zurich, at University of Illinois.

Two hundred students countrywide were awarded a $1000 scholarship through The Allstate Foundation Scholarship Program. The program provides scholarships to qualified dependent children of employees of Allstate Insurance Company and its affiliated companies.

"We established the scholarship program to assist our employees with the soaring costs of higher education," said Maxine Powell, executive director of The Allstate Foundation. "We believe it's an excellent way to recognize the accomplishments of employees' children."

The Allstate Foundation Scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic record, potential to succeed, participation in school and community activities, work experience, statement of educational and career goals, and a supplied reference. Although The Allstate Foundation funds the scholarships, all selection and administration is handled by Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of America, Inc. (CFSA), a national non-profit student aid service organization.

Lock closes for winter

The McHenry Lock, located on the Fox River near McHenry, will close to all boat traffic for the winter season at 11:30 p.m. local time on Sunday, Oct. 23.

Up until the closing date and time given above, hours of operation for the lock will continue as before.

The closing date has been chosen so that routine maintenance and preparations for winter can be accomplished before the onset of freezing weather.

Eye mutual aid police network

A growing number of Lakeland communities are investigating membership in the Northern Illinois Police Alarm System (NIPAS).

The system provides inter-departmental support and mutual aid in time of a disaster of police incident such as a terrorist barricade when a large amount of manpower is required.

Fox Lake Police Chief Joe Semasko spoke out in favor of NIPAS to Fox Lake council persons. Representatives of Antioch and Grayslake met Wednesday, Oct. 12, to study the system, conceived by the Buffalo Grove police dept.

By linking up with the agency,

Semasko said response time can be reduced for mutual; also overtime duty can be avoided in the case of an extended emergency.

Lindenhurst reportedly has joined and Round Lake Beach is considering. Cost is $200 to join with subsequent annual dues of $100 per year. The fee is for administrative paperwork.

Enrolls at U of W

Jill Powell, 2312 Green Brian Ln., Lindenhurst, enrolled in the University of Wisconsin-Platteville as a freshman this fall. She is a 1988 graduate of Grayslake Community High School.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME
Weekly Tip: Yield to some of your own intimate delights.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Make a point of contacting many of your close friends. Enjoy mutually pleasing times with these people. Do not impose on anyone at this time.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Consider ways to improve your property values. Make your personal surroundings more attractive. Working around the house will be time well spent.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Your own personal desires have a good chance of being realized now, so decide what you really want. Go after things with the utmost of charm now.

Cancer (June 21-July 20) Get out into the public eye. Cancer, for these times are the best for impressing those around you. Yield to the power and authority of superiors now.

Leo (July 21-Aug. 22) All kinds of new interests which are attractive could cross your path now, so be quick to accept and use those which could fit in with your goals.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Consider your assets and how you can most wisely increase them so you have an abundance to spare! Financial consultants could prove very beneficial.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Except where your home and family are concerned, it is an unusually good time to turn present situations to your benefit. Avoid risky schemes, though.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Get started on a constructive and well-organized plan of action with a solidly based associate, and you can make considerable headway. Dress for success.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Look into all kinds of new ventures which come to your attention both through family members and a close companion you see often. Look sharp.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Don't try to run away from some duty or obligation which is now yours since being conscientious brings you good things. Think on your toes.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Let long-time, influential friends and acquaintances know just what your deepest goals are if you want them to help you in attaining them.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Joining people in positions of power and authority can bring you much closer to your mutual goals. Don't be conventional, but don't be irrational.

If you were born this week, you will do very well for yourself once you overcome a natural aptitude for procrastination. You can be forceful enough to gain the advancement you are capable of, but you must keep yourself alert and in tune with progressive interests. Never stop educating yourself if the most success possible is to be achieved.

THE HOME GAME

MINATURE JACK-O-LANTERNS — Select the brightest oranges in the store, paint faces on 'em with marking pens and set at each child's place at the table for that holiday spirit.

RING BEGONE — Unsightly rings around toilets which fail to yield to cleaners can be removed with a gentle rubdown with fine sandpaper after you have lowered the water level, or course. For older, stubborn rings, purchase wet sandpaper for the job.

PERFECT PADDING — Show me a medicine chest which doesn't have a few stray corn pads lying around! Did you know the pads make fine felt protective pads for vases, pots, etc., which often scratch your table tops? Just stick 'em on!

"I LOVE LUCI."

Six months ago Katie McKenna and her family moved to Lake County. They needed a new family doctor, so Katie called Luci at Condell's Doctors Office Connection, a physician referral service.

Unlike other referral services, D.O.C. goes far beyond using a computerized system to match a patient's special medical needs with a doctor. Luci also takes the time to match intangibles (such as a patient's personality and temperament) with one of our many talented and experienced specialists. And if it's urgent, we will schedule a doctor's appointment while you are on the line. It's this kind of personal attention that makes Luci and D.O.C. so special.

Just ask Katie.

And call Luci at DOC-2900, ext. 5610.

You'll love our healthy attitude.

'Tramp' comes to Ryerson

The nationally touring drama "Conversation With a Tramp" comes to the Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area in Deerfield for one showing only on Saturday, Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Performed by accomplished television and stage actor Lee Stetson, the play is a tribute to John Muir, one of the country's most prominent naturalists.

The friends of Ryerson Woods and the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. are hosting the event in honor of this year's 150th anniversary of Muir's birth.

Muir is often credited for changing America's view towards the preservation of wilderness. His 300 articles and 10 major books influenced both the public and presidents alike. Muir founded the Sierra Club and helped to establish the National Park System. He studied ecology across the nation, discovering that "when we try to pick out anything by itself, we find it hitched to everything else in the universe."

"Muir's message of preservation is just as current now as it was in 1913," said Don Strenger, president of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.

Tickets for the show are limited and can be obtained by calling the preserve at (312)948-7750. They are $5 in advance and $6 at the door. Members of the Friends of Ryerson Woods receive a discount.

underway Sunday, Oct. 23, with a musical lecture about the orchestra and wrap-up Nov. 6 with a slide lecture on Gauguin's art.

"The Orchestra: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" will be the subject of a musical lecture on Sunday, Oct. 23, at 1 p.m. at the Gorton Community Center in Lake Forest.

Paul Anthony McRae, director of the Lake Forest Symphony, will discuss the evolution of the orchestra from Baroque to contemporary.

He will also highlight an upcoming world premiere piano concerto by Lowell Liebermann. The Gorton Community Center is located at 400 East Illinois Rd. The event is co-sponsored by the Lake Forest Symphony Guild.

"The Art of Paul Gauguin" will be featured in a slide lecture on Sunday, Nov. 6, at 1 p.m. at Highland Park High School.

Robert Eskridge, associate director of museum education at the Art Institute of Chicago, will discuss the art and life of Paul Gauguin, using slides of his greatest masterpieces from collections around the world. Highland Park High School is located at 433 Vine Ave.

Admission to both events is free, but a ticket is required for admission. The free tickets are available at the Southlake Educational Center, 1860 First St. in Highland Park. For more information, call Southlake at (312)433-7884.

A Hawaiian wedding

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

It's hard to argue that Hawaii is the perfect honeymoon destination. But did you ever consider Hawaii as the setting for your wedding, too?

What could be more romantic than saying "I do" next to a shimmering Hawaiian waterfall? Or perhaps in a grotto lavished in green ferns. Maybe that exchange of vows could take place on a hidden beach with a legendary Hawaiian sunset for a backdrop. You could even out-do Charles and Diana and get married on the grounds of an ancient Royal Palace.

Want to make your wedding even more unique? Skip the tux and the traditional wedding gown and go Hawaiian. No, that doesn't mean the bride wears a grass skirt. Instead she will don a Hawaiian wedding dress called a holoku. On her head the bride wears an intricately woven crown of flowers and ferns called a haku. The groom wears a long-sleeved white shirt and pants accented by a red sash.

Arranging such a wedding is easier than you may think. Many of the finer hotels throughout the islands, as well as many tour operators. Offer wedding packages. These can be as simple as a quick "I do" on the beach to one in which a Rolls-Royce takes you to a private yacht for a ceremony on a sunset sea. They will handle everything from the marriage license to the cake and flowers. Your travel agent should be able to give you all the details.

Requirements for getting married in Hawaii are few. Each of you must be at least 20 years of age. There is no waiting period and no blood test is required. The bride-to-be does need proof of rubella immunization which can be obtained from your doctor. A marriage permit costs $8 and can be obtained from the Department of Health in Honolulu or from one of the many agents on the neighbor islands.

So what will the relatives think when you tell them the wedding is going to be in Hawaii? My guess is everyone is looking for a reason to go to the Islands and you may have just given them one.

TOM WITOM

Chicago's Victory Gardens Theater starts its fall season with "Some Men Need Help" to mixed reviews. On the plus side are strong performances from a two-man play led by the charismatic Dennis Farina and the talented Ed Blatchford.

It would take more than their herculean efforts to turn Ford Noonan's ill-conceived comedy drama into an forgettable night of theater. The two-act drama is about a young advertising executive who is forcibly rescued from alcoholism by a solicitous neighbor. Farina's performance as Gaetano Altobelli, the Italian neighbor who turns out to be a white knight, is impressive perhaps worth the price of admission alone. He has marvelous facial expressions and hand gestures, and is a joy to watch.

But the strong-arm tactics of Farina's character, however well intentioned, would work better in one of the cops-and-robbers movies in which he has starred. And the inordinate time the pistol-packing Farina spends on his so-called pet project of reforming his newly found friend further stretches believability.

A petulant Blatchford, as Hudley T. Singleton III, guzzles booze by the bottle while proclaiming "This is a solo fight. I live for blackouts." A determined Farina, as Altobelli, endures insult and physical abuse but is not distracted from his goal.

Despite its structural shortcomings, "Some Men Need Help," scheduled to run through Oct. 23, is not without its moments of poignancy, humor and warmth. Unfortunately, they are too few in number.

Needing help

Dennis Farina, right, in scene from 'Some Men Need Help,' with Ed Blatchford. Show is playing at Victory Gardens Theatre.

Theatre series to open

Fantasy, fable, folklore and fairytales abound in Kidwork's Touring Theatre's presentation of "What's in a Book?", which opens the Genesee Theatre's Student Theatre Series Season.

Literature comes to life in the colorful characterizations and lively action of Aesop, Grimm, Hans Christian Anderson, and folktales of faraway lands.

Performances are scheduled for Oct. 21 at 9:45 a.m. and 12:45 p.m. and Oct. 22 at 3 p.m. Tickets are $4 for children and $5 for adults. Group rates and season passes are available for the series which also includes "The Hobbit";

Dancing returns to area theater

The Waukegan Park Dist. Jack Benny Center for the arts, in conjunction with the Cherry Electrical Products Corp., are bringing dance back to Waukegan.

Through a donation by Cherry, the Jack Benny Center for the Arts located in Bowen Park at 39 Jack Benny Dr. will host fall and spring dance festivals. The Fall Festival of Dance is slated for Saturday, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m. The Spring Dance Festival will take place on Saturday, March 11, at 8 p.m.

The featured attraction at the fall festival is the Lynda Martha Dance Company. Ballet News said the dance company possess "a repertoire of great audience appeal."

The annual Choreographers Competition will highlight the spring festival. Park Dist. Cultural Arts Manager, Lynn Schornick, said the competition usually "nets a wealth of talent."

Schornick was elated with Cherry's decision to underwrite the festivals. "We're seeing more and more local corporations and groups putting back into the community," said Schornick.

According to Schornick, the dance festivals sold out last year. "I'd encourage everyone to seek their tickets a little earlier this year," he said.

Tickets for each dance festival are $7 for adults and $5 for seniors, students, and military personnel. For reservations or more information, call (312)244-1660.

Lambs set for filming

The producers of the ABC weekly television magazine program "20/20" will be visiting Lambs' Farm in Libertyville mid-October to produce an informative feature about the Lambs' program. The segment, which will air later this season, will focus on the residential, vocational and social support services the Lambs offers to adults who are mentally retarded.

Over 180 men and women participate in the Lambs' program, 150 of whom reside in the farm's small group homes. Lambs' participants work in any of 10 businesses/vocational training sites operated on the farm, and an additional number of residents work in competitive jobs in the surrounding community.

Lambs Farm is open seven days a week year-round and attracts over 300,000 visitors annually. Admission and parking are free. The Lambs is located at the intersection of Hwy. 94 and Rte. 176 in Libertyville. For more information about the Lambs' programs and services, as well as the 20/20 filming, call (312)362-4636.

Ami Sylvestri best of 'Follies'

Stephen Sondheim's "Follies" took all sorts of awards when it opened on Broadway and it did the same thing the last time that it played at the Candlelight Dinner Theatre in Summit.

Obviously William Pullinsi is expecting a repeat of accolades for the vehicle that starred his wife Ami Sylvestri the first time and again stars that same talented lady.

Last week Candlelight opened its new version of the musical about the return of Follies girls for a visit to the theatre before it's torn down.

Sylvestri takes command of the entire show, possibly outdoing the first performance.

She is ably assisted by Dennis Kelly, Joan Dunham and Guy Barille in the other three starring roles.

Kelly is the weakest of the three, sinking a little too deeply into a "Last Tango in Paris" mood a few times.

The performances are so powerful that it took me almost the entire first act to realize that the actors were working on an almost bare stage.

Some outstanding numbers include the double casted (young-old) "Waiting For the Girls Upstairs," the "Bolero d'Amour" dance where the youthful ghosts of the middle age dancers perform behind them, and the big Follies number lead by Sylvestri, "Loveland," done all in flaming red!

None of the music from "Follies" is really outstanding though very enjoyable, but in the last act, when the four stars each go into their own separate folly via a solo song, things get a bit tedious.

Dunham's "Losing My Mind," is the best of that bunch, not to lessen Dunham's performance, but that's partly because she winds up with the best musical material.

The show is a bit too long, there are a few too many songs, but all in all, "Follies" bodes to be another Candlelight success.

Hobby show at Expo

Master modelers from across country will bring their favorite boats, cars, trains and planes to Chicago Model Hobby Show to be held Oct. 14-16 at O'Hare Expo Center. There will be 350 exhibits, plus retail store and several demonstration areas.

Makes deans list

Raymond Magiera, a freshman accounting major, has made the dean's list at Carroll College in Waukesha, Wis. for the second semester of the 1987-88 school year. Magiera is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Magiera of Grayslake.

Schedule auditions

Auditions for "The Real Santa Claus" have been scheduled for Sunday Oct. 23 at 2 p.m. and Monday Oct. 24 at 7 p.m.

Location is the Genesee Theatre, 203 N. Genesee St., Waukegan. This heartwarming Christmas Play is about a young boy's search for Santa which helps him to find the true meaning of Christmas.

There are parts for six men, 12 women, and 12 children. Call (312) 336-0428 or (312) 623-7311 for information.

Thank You

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to all the wonderful friends of Holly and our family. Your thoughtfulness has greatly contributed to our comfort in this time of sorrow.

Holly led an exemplary Christian life. She has met her creator and will pave the way for us.

The Holly that left us is not the Holly we knew. We know you'll remember her warmth, friendliness and ability to reach out and touch someone.

Obituaries

Dorothy M. Anderson
age 56, of Lake Villa, Illinois passed away Wednesday, October 5, 1988 at Lake Forest Hospital, Lake Forest, Illinois. She was born May 10, 1932 in Chicago, Illinois and has lived in the Lake Villa area since 1944. She was a member of the Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ, the historical Millburn Community Association, past president of the Millburn Grade School PTA and a member of the Committee to re-elect Senator Adeline Geo-Karis. She had been employed as a bank teller for the 1st National Bank of Libertyville and later was a hostess at the Northern Chalet Restaurant in Libertyville. On November 27, 1954 she married Milton Anderson in Millburn, Illinois.

Survivors include her husband Milton; 1 son, Edward (Linda) Anderson of Branson, Missouri; 1 daughter, Victoria Anderson of Las Vegas, Nevada; her father, Peter Verke of Lake Villa; 1 brother, Mark (Mary Jo) Verke of Fair Oaks, California; and 3 grandchildren, Tracy, Brendan and Erin. She was preceded in death by her mother, Eleanor Verke.

Funeral Services were held Saturday, October 8, 1988 at the STRANG FUNERAL HOME, 1055 Main Street, Antioch, Illinois with the Rev. Paul Meltzer, pastor, of the Millburn Congregational Church officiating. Interment was in Millburn Cemetery. Friends desiring may make contributions to the American Cancer Society or the Millburn Congregational Church in her memory. Flowers appreciated.

How I spent my Summer Vacation
by Johnny Flynn:

I had a big carnival in our backyard. I broke my arm. I got yelled at a lot. But my Mom's not mad at me anymore. Since school started she's been a Manpower office temporary. She says it's so-o-o nice to talk to adults all day. And she gets to work on neat word processing machines. My mom makes lots of money. She needs it to pay for my cast. And a new dressline. So I'll be able to tightrope walk again at my next carnival. Only I didn't tell her that part.

After a summer with the kids, you're ready to work with adults
To learn new skills
And earn good money
Manpower makes it all "child's play"

AKRON

FLOOR PLAN

PLAN # 200-04

By Landmark Designs

Three bedrooms/two baths is the minimum room arrangement for most growing families. 1200-1300 square feet is the maximum size for many family budgets. In the Akron, these requirements intersect without sacrificing either privacy or convenience.

The master bedroom has a private bath--unusual in a house this size. The two front bedrooms share the centrally-located main bath. All the sleeping areas lie along a side hall, and are well separated from living and work spaces by the bathrooms and intervening closets.

The living room is just that, an all-purpose space for lounging, entertaining, work or play. An offset wall divides it from the cooking/eating areas behind, while maintaining an open traffic flow.

Although the dining room occupies the same framing space as the kitchen, it feels like a separate room because of the visual barrier of a serving bar and hanging cabinets. The sense of openness in the dining room is increased by double doors that look out onto a back deck.

The U-shaped kitchen has counters and appliances down either side, with pantry and cabinets in the far wall. This is also the location of the washer/drier. Placing utilities in the kitchen is the main space compromise in the Akron. It conserves square footage for a third bedroom, and answers numerous requests for combined work areas in smaller homes.

The Akron is conventional ranch style, but the inclusion of a covered front deck adds a touch of luxury, as well as providing a protected pathway between two-car garage and main house.

For a study plan of the Akron (288-04), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2832, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering.) Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

Diner, excursion train begins nostalgic route

The Wis. Dept. of Transportation has issued its first permit for an excursion dinner train. Starting Oct. 4, Scenic Rail Dining, Inc. started to operate a five car train on a 76-mile non-stop route from Milwaukee to Horicon, in Dodge County, and back.

The DOT permit will allow the train to operate on tracks owned by the state, managed by the East Wisconsin Counties Railroad Consortium, and leased by the short line Wisconsin & Southern Railroad Co. Scenic Rail has contracted with Wisconsin & Southern to use a portion of the track six days a week during specified hours.

"The state is allowing the excursion service because we support adding financial strength to short line railroad companies," said Ronald Fiedler, DOT secretary. "The contract will give Wisconsin & Southern another source of income, and like other industries, it's important to have a diverse product line."

The first three and one-half hour excursion trip left a new station at 11340 W. Brown Deer Rd., Milwaukee, Oct. 4. The station features cathedral ceilings in the waiting room, and a large blue train mural, designed to duplicate the feel of a 1950s train station.

The 160 seats available in the two dome dining cars were all sold for the first run. Passengers chose from a four-course gourmet meal of prime rib, boneless roast duck or seafood.

The bright blue and yellow cars originally were part of the Union Pacific fleet in the 1950s, and have been refurbished by Scenic Rail owners Diane and Bill Gardner, also owners of a Cudahy rail car renovation firm.

She said the firm's four reservation lines have been constantly ringing since the firm announced the service. "All Sundays are booked through the year, and the first opening on a Saturday is Nov. 26," Scherbarth said.

The excursion train will operate through the end of the year, and will resume excursions April 1.

Man given new heart

Thanks to the miracle of medicine, the father of a Lindenhurst resident has a new heart. Robert Warrender Sr., father of Robert Warrender II of 2457 S. Heron Rd., received a new heart on Oct. 7 at Evanston Hospital.

Suffering from heart problems for years due to a boyhood bout with rheumatic fever, he had reached the limit of further drug therapy. Listed as No. 1 on a list to receive a donated heart, word came last week that one was available from an unknown Champagne person.

Warrender was taken to the hospital while a jet plane flew the heart from downstate to Palwaukee Airport near Wheeling. From there it was taken by helicopter and ambulance to a waiting team of heart specialists in the hospital. Ten hours later Warrender had his new heart. Early this week he was in intensive care. As soon as he is able to move about and walk under his own power—about 10 days—he will be free to return to his Highland Park home.

He is the founder of Fluid Services Inc.

Fangy Stuffed Squash

- 4 acorn squash
- 1 lb. chopped beef
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup bread crumbs
- 1-1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. dried tarragon
- 2/3 cup sour cream
- 1/2 tsp. hot or mild pepper sauce

Cut squash in half. Scoop out seeds and fibers. Drop halves into boiling, salted water and cook about 10 minutes. Blend remaining ingredients. Mound meat filling into squash halves. Place halves in pan with 1 inch of hot water. Bake in a 350 degree oven for about 30 minutes or until squash is tender. makes 4 to 6 servings.

Apple cake

- 1/2 cup shortening (part butter)
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sour half & half*
(the first 4 ingredients should be room temperature)
- 2-1/2 cups flour
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 cups chopped raw apples

Cream together shortening and sugar, add 1 egg at a time beating well after each egg is added. Sift flour, baking powder, soda and salt together to mix well.

Add 1/4 of sour half & half to shortening and egg mixture alternately with 1/4 of dry ingredients. Fold in chopped apples. Put in greased cake pan (about 10 x 14 inch).

Mix 1/3 cup sugar and 1 tsp. cinnamon — sprinkle on top of cake batter, and on top of this, sprinkle 1/3 to 1/2 cup chopped nuts.

Bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes. Cool slightly, but when still warm drizzle a powdered sugar frosting over cake.

*If you add 2 Tbs. of vinegar and let stand in a warm place for a few minutes the half & half cream will sour quickly.

Jaycess hope for big turnout at plan meeting

The Grayslake Jaycees are inviting residents to attend a monthly meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 18 beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Grayslake Community Room at 151 Hawley St.

The Jaycees, a national not-for-profit organization formed to support the community in which it is located, are driven by local groups of residents, businesses and concerned individuals. The Grayslake Jaycees recognize and address the needs of the community and work toward strengthening and improving its people and resources.

At its meeting next week, its president, John Richtman, a prominent local attorney, will oversee an election of board officials and hear reports on local activities, including involvement with the Antioch Jaycees' annual Haunted House. Twenty percent of the proceeds from this event will be directed to Grayslake for community projects.

The success of the organization depends of the encouragement of its membership and a forum for ideas will be provided at the meeting. The Community Room is located adjacent to the Grayslake Police Dept.

Weigel speaker for lunch

The Exchange Club of Gurnee will host an inter-club luncheon at the Holiday Inn of Gurnee at noon on Tuesday, Oct. 18. Members will be present from the Exchange Clubs of Antioch, Grayslake, Gurnee, Breakfast of Gurnee, Waukegan and Waukegan and Zion.

Guest speaker will be Tim Weigel, ABC sportscaster from WLS tv-Chicago. This will be a homecoming for Weigel.
